WOODEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Packard Observe Fifth Anniversary

A merry company of relatives and friends assembled Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Packard on Washington Park, the occasion being a celebration of the fifth anniversary of their marriage. Mrs. Packard, before her marriage, was Miss Amy Wetherbee, a well-known and popular Newtonville girl. The house was prettily decorated, the verandas being illuminated with Japanese lanterns and the interior decorations consisted of an artistic arrangement of autumn foliage and flowers in picture living room and dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Packard received from 8 until 10, standing in an arch in the bow window, which was festooned with autumn leaves.

Newton's chances of winning the championship of the league looked extremely rosy to the followers until Saturday, when the Brookline H. S. eleven which had been playing rather poor football during the season, sprung a surprise in scholastic football, by defeating the Waltham team.

The Orange and Black found it opportunity to score, when Roquemore recovered a fumble on the Cambridge 22-yard line in the third period. As the game was fast progressing and neither side was working line plugging with any great success, the signal for a drop kick was given. Harris received the pass standing on the 30-yard line and kicked the ball, striking the top of the cross bar and bounding over.

Newton had the better of the contest during the third and fourth quarters, although neither team played up to its expectations. During the game three forward passes were all beautifully executed by Hyatt, but his teammates were unable to hold on to the slippery ball.

Charles Brady, the big Newton tackle came into a collision with Roquemore during the third quarter and broke his nose, and his place was filled during the remainder of the game by Muther and Bentley.

Hyatt and VanBuskirk played the best football for the local team, while Sands, the opposing quarterback was easily the shining light of the game, being the only member of the team who gained ground to any extent through the Newton team.

SUPPLE—McDONALD

Miss Clara Alberta McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McDonald of 182 Tremont street, became the bride of Dr. Edward A. Supple, a Boston physician last Wednesday morning, the ceremony being performed at the Church of Our Lady of the Presentation, Oak square, with a nuptial high mass celebrated by the groom's brother, Rt. Rev. Mgr. P. J. Supple of Roxbury. A large gathering of friends of the couple witnessed the ceremony, the church being tastefully decorated with white chrysanthemums and autumn foliage for the occasion.

The bride's attendant was Mrs. W. Connor, a sister of New York city as matron of honor and the best man was Leo F. Supple of Holliston, a brother of the groom. The bride was attired in a short white satin frock, trimmed with duchess lace and wore a white hat with French plumes. The gown of the matron of honor was of silver gray crepe manteo trimmed with Venetian lace.

Following the church ceremony the couple after partaking of a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, held a reception, the matron of honor, best man and parents of the bride assisting in the receiving line. After an extended wedding trip thru the western states the couple will make their home after Jan. 1 at 416 Marlborough street, Boston.

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE—The announcement that David Belasco will present his famous production of "The Concert" at the Hollis Street Theatre, Boston, for two weeks beginning Nov. 4, is welcome news to theatre-goers. Standing room no doubt will be at a premium, for Mr. Belasco's fame as a producer draws crowds of sympathetic and delighted audiences. In any Belasco production they know they will see a play worth while, and they bank on the Belasco promises and achievements of the past—promises that have been kept and achievements that have been triumphs. Why does "The Concert" arouse such tumult of enthusiasm and approval? Briefly described "The Concert" is a dramatization of the old Adam in man and the old Eve in woman, which this day and generation chooses to call "artistic temperament." This artistic temperament, the author of "The Concert," has treated with a lance and scalpel, dissecting it with merciless logic and holding it up for our amusement in a series of situations as intensely dramatic as they are always humorous and full of the true comedy spirit. There will be Wednesday and Saturday matinees of "The Concert." The night performances are over in plenty of time for suburbanites to get their trains.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE—John J. McGraw, the famous manager of the New York "Giants," has signed a contract to appear at B. F. Keith's Theatre in Boston next week. Mr. McGraw is without question the greatest baseball general that the American game has ever produced. He will appear in evening dress, giving a short talk on "Inside Baseball." Running Mr. McGraw a close race for first honors on the bill, will be Don, the wonderful talking dog from Germany, who is without question the canine phenomenon of the century. "Don" is, so far as known, the only animal that has ever been educated to actually articulate words. He speaks several words in German, including his master's name. He will be introduced by Loney Haskell the well-known monologist. Aside from these two brilliant features the bill will include Cunningham and Marlon, the jolly tumblers; Schranner and Dickinson, the pianist and the maid; Barnes and Barron, two new Hebrew comedians; the Musical Kings in a big spectacular musical act; Williams, Thompson and Copelands in a funny farce called "The Burglar's Union." The Steinert Trio, bar experts, and many others.

PROGRESSIVE PIE SOCIAL

The Rebekahs opened their season last week on Thursday evening in Odd Fellows hall with one of their popular pie socials. It was a progressive pie social and participated in by a large company of members and their friends. There was a visitation from the Deputy Grand Master, Mrs. Caroline Sargent of Somerville and at the close of the meeting the festivities began, when the company adjourned to the banquet hall and seated, four at a table. The pies were cut and all the varieties sampled by the guests. A fine program consisting of musical selections was rendered by Mrs. Russell, and it was a thoroughly enjoyable occasion, but the festivities were brought to a sad ending by the sudden illness of Mrs. Sargent. At 11 o'clock when she was about to board the train for Boston, she was taken ill with a shock in the railway station at Newtonville and had to be carried to the home of Mrs. Edward Wilson on Washington Park, where she received medical attendance and was obliged to remain for several days.

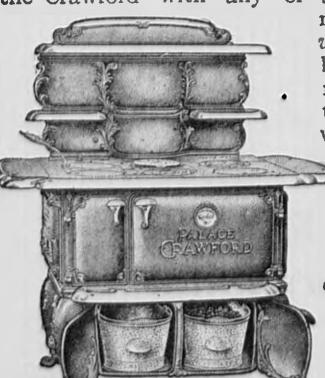

REVIVAL SERVICES

The revival services at Oak Square Methodist Church continue. There were 15 conversions as result of the Sunday services. Services each evening up to next Sunday night. Special messages in song are made one pleasant feature of the meetings. The sermons given each evening by the evangelist are appreciated by good audiences.

Baker of Newton Theological Institution will preach at both services. At 10:30 the subject will be "The Indispensable Power." At the evening service, the topic will be "The Church that is Needed."

HAMMOND POND

The Metropolitan Park Commission gave a hearing at the State House Wednesday morning to parties interested in the construction of metropolitan parkways and boulevards, under the terms of Chapter 639 of the Acts of the General Court of the present year. This statute authorizes the Commission to expend the sum of $200,000 each year for five years in taking land for and constructing certain parkways, among which is for acquiring land around Lost Pond in the town of Brookline and Hammond Pond in the city of Newton and the town of Brookline, $100,000.

Ex-representative Elias B. Bishop of Newton asked the commission to take immediate steps to secure the land necessary for the Lost Pond improvement and leave the matter of construction for the future. He said land values in that vicinity are increasing very rapidly and delay will cost the State a great deal of money.

Mr. Richard M. Saltonstall and Mr. James D. Colt of Chestnut Hill also favored the project.

—CASTLE SQUARE THEATRE—

The title of "The Commuters" indicates that it is a play for all who appreciate the humors of suburban life.

It comes to the Castle Square Theatre Monday, and it will undoubtedly repeat the popularity that has been its reward wherever produced.

Hetty and Larry Brice are a newly married couple who dwell in a suburban town called Auburn Manor just outside of New York, and when Sam Fletcher is invited by Larry to come out and spend the night, complications ensue that make up three acts of almost unending humor.

The dialogue is bright, witty, and good-natured in its thrusts at suburban life, and the action is spirited and lively.

The cast will include Misses Mary Young, Mr. Wilson Melrose, and the entire strength of Mr. Craig's Castle Square company.

For President
WILLIAM H. TAFT

EDITORIAL

It hardly seems necessary for me to remind the voters of this city that at the election next Tuesday, there is something more than personalities to be considered.

While President Taft stands by his record of accomplishments, which will rank with the best, he believes most strongly in constitutional government, in a constitution which can only be amended by the deliberate, second thought of the people, and on that issue, alone, every thoughtful citizen should give him unqualified support. The tendency towards President Taft has been most noticeable during the last weeks of this unusual campaign and there is every prospect that the vote of Massachusetts will be cast, as it always has been cast, on the side of law and justice. For governor, Mr. Walker, is almost certain to win. His record while in the Legislature and his manly course last year towards Mr. Frothingham, have shown the people that he has the right stuff for a Massachusetts governor. Of course there is no question where Newton will be on the election of a Congressman. Captain Weeks has made such a splendid record at Washington that his return is simply a matter of counting the votes and Newton ought to lead the whole district in clinching his re-election.

The legislative situation is not so pleasing, particularly in the matter of the state senatorship, where a Newton resident, running on the so-called Progressive ticket, is rendering excellent service to another Newton resident on the Democratic end. Newton has a particular interest in this matter, for important matters affecting this city will be considered at Beacon Hill next winter, including the dredging of the Charles River, annexation to Boston, the Grand Trunk Railroad situation, the electrification of the railroad service, besides the United States senatorship, for which our own Congressman, John W. Weeks, is a leading candidate. Votes for Mr. Mellen will elect Mr. Cannon and defeat Mr. Hilton, for Mr. Mellen cannot be elected in a district as strongly Republican as this. Complimentary votes for him, therefore, will only result in the election of Mr. Cannon and assisting the Boston Democracy to control the State House. Incidentally, Newton should roll up its customary large plurality for our three representatives, whose standing in the Legislature is such, that they are certain of important committee assignments.

While the election of another Newton man, Mr. G. Fred Simpson, to the governor's council, is probably unquestioned, we have a splendid opportunity to show the councillor district, that Newton appreciates public service from its best citizens.

The ballot next Tuesday will have a referendum on three questions. Two of these matters are amendments to our state constitution, both of which will probably be adopted without much question, altho the issues have been but slightly discussed. The first will disqualify from voting any person convicted of violating our corrupt practice laws—a penalty drastic enough for all practical purposes, and the other seeks to modify our absurd taxation laws in a slight degree by allowing the assessors to encourage the cultivation of forest lands. The third referendum is on the acceptance of an act to pension laborers employed by cities and towns. The age limit is 60 years for men incapacitated for labor and 65 years, for men who have been employed at least 25 years. From figures gathered by the board of aldermen last year, it appears that there were in 1911, forty five men above the age of 60 years working as laborers. It was also noted that the average annual wage of the city laborer was about $480. If the act was accepted therefore, the greatest possible annual expense to the taxpayers would be about $10,000, a sum far in excess of the actual practical workings of the law. It is for the taxpayers to indicate their willingness to pay for this new plan for old age pensions.

It is unfortunate that the act combines two distinct principles, one of which—the desirability of pensioning persons injured in the performance of their duty—has been practically accepted by the great body of our people as just and right. The principle of old age or service pensions, however, is still a matter of debate, there being a grave query in the minds of many as to the wisdom of encouraging workers for municipalities to spend their entire income, with the certainty of receiving a pension later in life.

I believe, however, that the act will be accepted, and that the state will thereupon commit itself to the pension principle in its entirety.

I am more than delighted to answer the query in Mr. Luitwiler's letter published herewith, as to my reasons for using the phrase "so called" with reference to the new political party, and, indeed, had intended to make that explanation at this time in any event.

In my opinion, the Republican party of Massachusetts, is the REAL Progressive party. It is current knowledge, that Massachusetts legislation passed by Republican legislators is the most advanced of any in the country—that in ballot reform, work by our various state institutions, our laws regarding child labor, workmen's compensation, factory inspection and in almost every phase of governmental policy, with the possible exception of taxation, Massachusetts stands at or near the head. Col. Roosevelt, himself says: "Massachusetts has had a great and honorable career in the past. She has taken the lead in every movement for the welfare of this nation ever since the days when men of the thirteen colonies sent their representatives to the first Continental Congress." And all this has been done during the past 60 years by the Republican party, a party which has shown by deeds, and not words, that it is the real Progressive party of the state. The qualification "so called" therefore in my opinion should be prefixed to any organization, whose claim to the title "Progressive" is based on mere words and specious promises.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE

The Women's Auxiliaries of the Y. M. C. A. of Massachusetts and Rhode Island held a conference, the largest that has ever been held, this week on Wednesday and Thursday at the Newton Y. M. C. A. Building. Members numbering 279 enjoyed the hospitality of the ladies of the Newton churches. On Wednesday afternoon the visitors were entertained at luncheon by the ladies of the Eliot Church, under the direction of Mrs. Francis W. Hazelwood and Mrs. Charles D. Kepner. On Wednesday evening they were entertained at dinner by the ladies of Immanuel Church, under the direction of Mrs. W. Deutschle and Miss Bertha Moore. At noon on Thursday lunch was served at the Methodist Church, under the direction of Mrs. Hugh Campbell and Mrs. D. F. Barber. At the morning session, Wednesday at the Y. M. C. A. papers were read by Mrs. F. D. Hawley of Cambridge; Mrs. Wheeler of Lowell; Mrs. Fellows of Pawtucket and Mrs. Brigham of Fall River; vocal selections were admirably rendered at both afternoon and evening sessions by Rev. and Mrs. H. Grant Person, and at the afternoon session by Mrs. Carleton Ellison. Mr. E. W. Peirce of the Boston Y. M. C. A. delivered an address at the afternoon session, on "Some Things the Men and Religion Forward Movement have Meant to the Religious Life of the Nation." Mr. E. P. Conlon, Secretary of Norfolk County, gave an address on "The Association Boy." "In the Sister Commonwealth" was the subject of the address by Mr. E. W. Hearne, State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. The devotional service on Wednesday evening was led by Rev. Dr. Laurens MacLure, rector of Grace Church, and Dr. G. W. Turner, State Immigrant Secretary, gave an interesting address, showing the immigrant question and how it might be dealt with, illustrated with stereopticon views. The reports at the morning session on Thursday by Mrs. Marie Holland of Chelsea showed the progress of the Auxiliary from year to year. Mr. D. C. Drew, State County Secretary, spoke on the work in rural fields and Mrs. H. G. Mark of Lawrence read a paper on "The Efficiency Test," showing that the test of our organization is what we are doing. Are we making good? The first test was, "Am I doing All I Can?" Second, "Our Financial Duty." Third, "Our Social Efficiency." Mrs. Elian entertained the audience at the morning session with some finely rendered vocal selections. W. D. Smith of Malden delivered the first address at the afternoon session, taling for his subject "The Church in Special Service," and emphasized the side showing the home makers how to judiciously expend their incomes and the responsibility of training the children to realize their own responsibility; it dealt also with proper food, cooking, sanitation, etc. Dr. James H. Francis of Boston gave the closing address of the Conference on "Where there is No Vision, the People Perish," and pointed out the great importance of living up to high ideals. All of the addresses were highly interesting and instructive and the large audiences were aroused by the eloquence and earnestness of the speakers. Mrs. Howard Mason and Mrs. Franklin W. Gunse led the singing and Mrs. Fred L. Trowbridge presided at the piano. Mrs. L. E. Moore was chairman of the Conference Committee; Mrs. E. A. Whitney, chairman of the Credential Committee; Mrs. Eliot Trowbridge, chairman of the Reception Committee; Mrs. John H. Robinson, chairman of the Hospitality Committee. At the closing session a vote of thanks was tendered the Newton Auxiliary for the entertainment and a great deal of appreciation was expressed by the guests and equally by the hostesses, in the pleasure of entertaining them.

UNIQUE AFFAIR

The Belgian Market which was held Wednesday and Thursday in Bray Hall, Newton Centre, under the auspices of the Mothers' Rest Association, was a great success. Vast crowds of spectators and purchasers taxed the capacity of the hall each day. Gorgeous scenes, novel and elaborate effects characterized the decorations and the ladies presented a quaint appearance peddling their wares in push-carts, trucks and wheelbarrows, in and out among the crowds of interested and amused visitors. Twelve booths were arranged on either side of the hall which was decorated for the occasion with flags of all nations. Two rows of trees formed an aisle thro' the center of the hall where plants, flowers and seeds were on sale by the Sigma Lambda girls and where the push-cart parade passed to and fro. The women and girls arrayed in unique and brilliant Italian costumes were something of a scene attraction and the entire effect was most picturesque as viewed from the balcony. The candy booth was presided over by a bevy of brilliantly attired young women, who dispensed sweetmeats indiscriminately during the afternoon and evening. There were attractively decorated booths stocked with fancy goods, books, pictures, cards, flags, fruit, preserves, groceries, vegetables and in fact everything one could expect in a country fair. The Fairy Floss booth was especially pretty and Robert Remington, in a gorgeous Italian costume of silk and velvet, peddled pink and white floss each afternoon and evening. Dr. Andrews, Mr. Malcolm Brook and Mr. Tom Tilton, attired in purple uniforms with scarlet hats made rather formidable looking policemen. They were assisted by several boys in similar uniform, posing as officers of the law and it is needless to say that they succeeded in preserving order among the deniers. The market opened at 10 A. M. Lunch was served a la Carte from 12 to 2 in the small hall, the tables being prettily decorated with chrysanthemums, ferns and daisies. The restaurant was under the efficient management of Mrs. Hemenway. Signor Brignati, slight of hand performer, gave clever exhibitions at 3, 4, and 5 o'clock in Circular Hall, which was artistically decorated with black and yellow streamers, corn-stalks, Jack-O'-Lanterns, bats, cats and all sorts of weird objects suggestive of Hallowe'en. The tea house was open from 3 to 6 and from 8 to 9. Each evening at 9 o'clock a high class vaudeville entertainment was given in Small Hall, which performances were well patronized. The fair closed Thursday evening with Hallowe'en festivities and a dance, which was very largely attended. An enterprise which was entered into with such enthusiasm as was manifested by the ladies of Newton Centre deserves to be rewarded by success, and it certainly was, judging by the immense crowds that thronged the hall, and the thriving business that was transacted at the various booths.

The general committee consisted of Mrs. Arthur C. Badger, Chairman; Mrs. Sumner Clement, Secretary and Treasurer; Mrs. Robert E. Anderson; Mrs. Edward A. Andrews, Miss Priscilla Badger, Miss Julia Colby, Mr. Fred F. Cutler, Mrs. Lewis F. Eaton, Mrs. Frank C. Hatch, Mrs. F. M. Hemenway, Mrs. Henry Ide, Mrs. Charles E. Kelsey, Mrs. Henry H. Kendall, Mrs. Frank A. Mason, Mr. Hawley Morton, Miss Priscilla Ordway, Mrs. Theodore Plimpton, Mrs. Charles D. Page, Mrs. Samuel A. Shannon, Mrs. E. Ray Speare.

Mr. Hilton is endorsed by all local labor unions of his own town of Framingham, where he is best known, and the action of the State Federation of Labor was against all Republican candidates, and not specially against Mr. Hilton.

Mr. Hilton was a member of the Legislature of 1908-09. He voted for the Holding Company bill, recommended by Governor Draper, that may be railroad monopoly, but he doubts it. He favored legislation for a parcels post, but refused to vote for buncome resolutions presented to the Legislature for political effect. In common with our Newton representatives at that time, he voted against taking away the right to fix the price of gas (at 80 cents or any other figure) from the Gas Commission, where it properly belongs, and against the so called correction of the Boston smoke nuisance. His vote against direct nominations was based on the crudity of the proposed legislation and not on the merits of the proposition.

Having stated Mr. Hilton's position on these legislative matters, it is no more than fair to call attention to the acts of Mr. Mellen, when a representative in the legislature from Worcester in 1855-96. Mr. Mellen is on record as voting against the 2 cent a mile bill for railroad fares, against the bill to prohibit infant life insurance, against the bill for better protection of grade crossings, and against the bill for free transfers by street railway companies. He is not recorded on 65 roll calls, during his two years, including votes on the anti bucket shop bill, and on the re-election of Senator Hoar. It is fair to Mr. Mellen to say that there may be some explanation of his attitude on these matters, but the record stands as above stated.

Mr. Hilton received the endorsement of the Progressive element, headed by Mr. Chas. S. Baxter, who was the chief Roosevelt delegate at large from Massachusetts to the Chicago convention. Mr. Luitwiler may object to Mr. Baxter at this time, but he cannot truthfully say that my statement last week was "unfair."

But Mr. Luitwiler is grossly unfair to Representative White in attributing to him, the conviction of his clerk for an act which Mr. White had strictly cautioned the man not to commit. Representative White voted against the repeal of the bar and bottle bill, a measure on which the liquor interests of the last legislature exerted greatest pressure, and is on record as favoring other important temperance measures.

Mr. Luitwiler follows his national "boss" in calling persons who do not agree with them either by the "short and ugly word" or the more polite phrase "absolutely false." I still maintain that a large majority of the so called Progressive Party will vote the Republican state ticket, for it knows that a Republican legislature can be depended upon to enact sane and sensible legislation, and that a vote for the so called Progressive candidates, including Mr. Mellen, will simply elect a Democratic legislature.

I have a warm personal regard for Mr. Mellen, but it is certain that either Mr. Hilton or Mr. Cannon will be elected senator from this district. Mr. Hilton can be elected, and will be elected if the residents of Newton desire to be represented in the State Senate by a man who will protect Newton in matters of annexation to Boston, and its important interest in the metropolitan district, and who will vote against John F. Fitzgerald, for United States Senator. It is Mr. Mellen who cannot be elected, for the so-called Progressive vote of this senatorial district, cannot possibly be larger than the Roosevelt vote of last spring, 2790, out of a total vote of over 12,000. A vote for Mr. Mellen, therefore, will be half a vote for the Democratic candidate.

Mr. Hilton can be elected. Yours very truly,

THE LETTER

October 30, 1912.

To the Editor of the Newton Graphic: Your editorial in the last issue is such a manifestly unfair statement that, in justice to yourself and the Progressive Party of Newton, you should give this letter space in your paper.

Why should you refer to this organization as the "so-called" party?

The Progressive Party has come to stay and must be reckoned with in all future elections. The Graphic knows, and the Newton republican leaders admit publicly, that Mr. Hilton cannot be elected.

Mr. Hilton is blacklisted by the Federation of Labor.

Mr. Hilton voted in the Legislature in favor of corporate interests and against the interest of the public.

He voted with the Railroad Monopoly; against Parcel Post; against 80 cent gas for greater Boston districts; against the correction of Boston's smoke nuisance; against direct nominations.

Is that a record that appeals to Newton citizens?

Your statement that Mr. Hilton is endorsed by the better portion of the "Progressive element" is a fair sample of the methods of the press in this campaign. Mr. Baxter and his small following are nothing but Republicans and their endorsement does not mean anything.

Are you sure that in your list you have not omitted a number of other "progressive" city if we voted for Mr. Mellen?

I suppose every friend of temperance, if he votes for this so-called republican, Mr. Hilton, should for the same reason vote for Thomas W. White, that great temperance man from Upper Falls, whose clerk was fined for selling liquor illegally, liquor which Mr. White bought and paid for.

Do not worry about the young men, or thinking men. They have no use for the so-called republican party which died in June. In the latter part of your editorial, you say that Mr. Hilton has received the endorsement of the better class of the Progressive Party, you know this to be absolutely false. No real Progressive in Newton would endorse him.

Do you pretend to say that Mr. Mellen will not vote for a decent man for U. S. Senator?

Mr. Hilton can not be elected.

Yours very truly,
C. S. LUITWELER,
Secretary,
Progressive Party of Newton.

THE REPLY

I think I hardly need to reply to Mr. Luitwiler's statement that my editorial last week was unfair, a careful reading of the same cannot bear out that assertion.

To answer his letter specifically, I will say that the Graphic does not admit that Mr. Hilton cannot be elected Senator from this district. Mr. Hilton can be elected, and will be elected if the residents of Newton desire to be represented in the State Senate by a man who will protect Newton in matters of annexation to Boston, and its important interest in the metropolitan district, and who will vote against John F. Fitzgerald, for United States Senator. It is Mr. Mellen who cannot be elected, for the so-called Progressive vote of this senatorial district, cannot possibly be larger than the Roosevelt vote of last spring, 2790, out of a total vote of over 12,000. A vote for Mr. Mellen, therefore, will be half a vote for the Democratic candidate.

Mr. Hilton can be elected. Yours very truly,

C. S. LUITWELER,
Secretary,
Progressive Party of Newton.

SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Newton High football team met another defeat on Claffin Field last Tuesday afternoon, when a well directed drop kick from the 28-yard line enabled the Technology Freshmen to win the game, 3 to 0. Newton's backfield were not able to penetrate the opposing line to any extent, and the forward pass did not work out so successfully as in previous contests.

Neither side scored during the first period, although the ball was kept in Newton's territory most of the time. By good line plumping, with the help of the forward pass, the visitors brought the ball to Newton's 25-yard line. Murphy, the opposing quarterback, signaled for a drop kick, but Gardner rushed through and blocked it. The ball, however, was again recovered by the visitors, and in the next attempt the ball sailed gracefully over the crossbar.

Newton, by the interception of a forward pass, nearly scored in the second quarter, the runner being downed on the 20-yard line, when time was called. Gardner jumped and caught the ball, but the fleet-footed quarterback on the opposing team had captured him on the 20-yard line.

After bringing the ball to the 3-yard line in the last quarter, the Newton line tightened up and held the visitors for down, regaining the ball and checked a possible touchdown. Hyatt and Van Buskirk excelled for the local team and Murphy and Mader played best for the winners.

A large crowd of followers of the Newton High School football team will accompany the team to Somerville tomorrow. Capt. Wilbur and Brady, both of whom have been out of the last game on account of injuries, will again be back in the line up.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

A glance at the list of announcements for the coming week is sufficient to convince one that the year of club work is fairly started. The programs so far announced present much that is worth while and promise much of pleasure as well. Travel offers a fertile subject and appears to be a prominent one in this year's programs.

Dr. Crothers in an article in the current Atlantic Monthly humorously touches upon the attitude of American travelers, who expect to find the spots made famous by memorable deeds in just the same condition as at the time in which the events happened.

"At the price of a steamship ticket," he says, "one may be transported to another country, but safe passage to another age is not guaranteed. It is enough if some slight suggestion is given to the imagination. The magic carpet which carries us into any age not our own is woven by the poets and historians. Without their aid we may travel through space, but not through Time."

Those who are unable to travel through "Space" are fortunate in being able to travel through "Time" as Dr. Crothers suggests and to do so in the clubs is certainly a profitable pursuit. The aids to this work both in books and photographs offered by our own library should not be overlooked. The lasting good derived from such study depends not only upon the individual's memory, but also upon the imagination and the power to visualize the events and places in question.

The Study Class Civil Service Reform started last year will be continued this season on the first Saturday of each month at the lecture hall of Boston Public Library at 10.30 A.M. All persons interested are cordially invited to attend. The first meeting will be on Saturday morning of this week, when Mr. Edward T. Hartmann of the Massachusetts Civic League will speak on "The Housing Problem in Massachusetts."

Local Announcements

The Monday Club of Newton Highlands will hold its next meeting with Miss Sarah S. Newhall. "The Public Schools of Massachusetts" will be the general subject for the afternoon.

Mrs. A. F. Hayward of Centre street will entertain the C. L. S. C. of Newton Highlands on Monday afternoon. The program will be a little out of the ordinary being an afternoon of Current Events supplemented by music. Each member is privileged to bring one guest.

Dr. F. E. Spaulding will address the Newton Mothers' Club at its meeting on Monday, Nov. 4th, at the home of Mrs. E. H. Rogers, 44 Shaw street, West Newton.

The opening meeting of the season of the Waban Woman's Club will be held at the vestry of the Union Church on Monday afternoon, Nov. 4. The comedy, "Jane," will be presented and there will be a reception.

On Tuesday afternoon the Newtonville Woman's Guild will hold its first regular meeting at the New Church parlor, when Miss Frances Nevil will give dramatic readings from modern Irish Dramas and Lyrics.

The Social Science Club opens its season with the regular business meeting on Wednesday morning at the Hunnewell Club.

"Current Events" is the subject of the meeting of the Newton Centre Woman's Club on Thursday morning, Nov. 7th. The course this year will be given by Mr. Edward H. Chandler, secretary of the Twentieth Century Club.

The members of the Ladies' Home Circle are reminded of the whist to be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Brown of Islington road, Auburndale, on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 6th, and of the regular meeting on Thursday afternoon, at the G. A. R. Hall, Newtonville.

At the Players' Small Hall on Friday afternoon, Nov. 8th, the West Newton Women's Educational Club will open its season. Mr. Frank H. Daniels will speak on "The Furnishing of a Modest Home."

A course of three lecture-recitals by Mrs. David E. Baker, assisted by other talent, is being arranged by the Newtonville Woman's Guild. The first of these recitals will occur on Nov. 12th at the New Church parlor. Tickets for the course may be secured from Miss McGill, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Schipper, Mrs. Thurber or from Miss Bassett.

Local Happenings

The Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. met on Monday afternoon with Mrs. H. B. Rogers of Charlesbank road, Newton. The first half hour was given up to the weekly reports of matters of world-wide importance. The club then turned to the study of Brazil under the direction of Mrs. Fred Hayward. She treated of the fauna and flora, specimens of the Brazilian butterfly being shown, of the educational conditions of the country, of its art and music and literature. The educational system is best developed in the state of São Paulo, yet at the present time 80 per cent of the people are illiterate. She described the beautiful city of Rio de Janeiro and its suburbs second to none in the world, and Petropolis, the residence of the foreign diplomats. Brazil has for a long time been interested in opera and has had native composers who have made a name for themselves abroad, especially in Italy. With the assistance of a map showing the various states of the Republic, Mrs. Hayward was able to point them out and described their leading characteristics. The afternoon was full of interest and proved that the subject is certainly a rich one.

The regular meeting of the Monday Club was postponed until Tuesday of this week in order to observe Children's Day. Mrs. M. S. Wallace was in charge of the program, which included recitations and songs by the children. Refreshments were served and the children were presented with Hallowe'en favors. Mrs. Charles T. Bartlett was the hostess.

On Wednesday, Oct. 30, the Pierian Club met with Mrs. L. P. Everett of High street. An article on "The Social Life and Customs of Ireland" was read by the president, Mrs. C. F. Rogers, Jr. Miss Galbraith related experiences of her travels in that country, which were very interesting. A social hour concluded an enjoyable afternoon.

The Auburndale Review Club met at the home of the president, Mrs. W. A. Knowlton, on October 29, at 10 A.M. Miss MacMillan read very interesting paper on "The Protection of Bird Life." Mrs. Turner's subject of "Settlement Work" was ably treated. Mrs. Hammond's "Civics and Philanthropy" and "The Social Work of the Massachusetts General Hospital" was extremely interesting. Miss Skinner told of her investigations in regard to the "Housing Problem" in the North End of Boston, and Mrs. Davis spoke on "What can be done to make our city more beautiful."

The next meeting will be held November 12, with Mrs. Bridgman.

HOME CIRCLE

The next regular meeting in G. A. R. Hall, Newtonville, on Thursday, November 7, promises to be an especially good one. Tea will be served and probably an entertainment will be offered. Let us have a large attendance.

Mrs. Wm. H. Brown of Islington road, Auburndale, one of the most loyal of Home Circle members, is to play a whist next Wednesday, to which she cordially invites Home Circle members and their friends. A most enjoyable afternoon may be anticipated.

NORTH GATE CLUB

The North Gate Club opened its social season with a Harvest and Hallowe'en party last Monday evening, which proved one of the most unique and enjoyable affairs held in some time.

The decorations of the hall were in keeping with the Harvest and Hallowe'en seasons. Sixteen tables were devoted to whist. The first prize for ladies was won by Mrs. C. E. Quinn, the gentlemen's first by Mr. L. W. Gore. Refreshments, consisting of doughnuts, crackers, cheese, pie and cider were served, dancing followed.

The committee comprised W. E. Leonard, chairman, L. D. MacNutt and Dr. Frank Putnam.

Some sort of an entertainment is planned for November 25th, but the plans have not matured as yet. A Watch Night Party will be held the last night of the Old Year.

The bowling season starts next Monday; 36 have already eurowled for a combination tournament—men and women—and prizes will be offered to the winners. There will be bowling each evening during the progress of the tournament, to be followed by dancing.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

About 100 people attended the Hallowe'en party and dance given by Mt. Ida Council, Royal Arcanum, last Monday evening in Dennison hall, Newtonville.

The hall was appropriately decorated with emblems suitable to the occasion. A fortune-telling tent in one corner was presided over by a prophetess in Indian costume. Games were enjoyed until 9 o'clock, when dancing followed. Refreshments were served by members of the committee in costume.

The committee in charge comprised H. E. Taylor, C. H. Goodwin, Jr., C. E. Ryall, A. A. Wilson, G. W. Mills, and S. K. Billings, assisted by the following members of the Mt. Ida Ladies' Auxiliary, Mrs. W. C. Newell, Mrs. C. H. Goodwin, Jr., Mrs. A. A. Wilson, Mrs. W. F. Sisson, Miss Ethel Chaplin and Miss Marguerite Kellogg.

HALLOWEEN REUNION

The Mystery Island colony were entertained last evening at a reunion and Hallowe'en dance at the residence of Mrs. Walter Lovell on Central avenue. The library was converted into a dance hall and decorated with corn husks, pumpkins, Jack-O'-Lanterns, quantities of yellow chrysanthemums, arranged on mantles and book cases. A colored piano from Forncroft furnished a pleasing program of music and there was a well arranged program of 20 dances. Among the guests were Misses Benton, Brindash of Brookline, Charles Furber of Milton, Robert Sibley, Walter Cady, Ansel Cady, Kenneth Campbell, Lieutenant Dolan and Robinson of New Jersey, Nicholas Richardson, Mrs. Jennie Nichols, Boston, Mrs. Cady, Miss Faith Adams, Haverhill, Mrs. Dora Hollander, Brookline, Miss Eleanor Davis, Cambridge and Miss Margaret Plant, Rochester. The ladies wore unique costumes of yellow with pumpkin shaped head dress and black aprons. Refreshments were served in the dining room where Hallowe'en decorations also prevailed.

LODGES

Dalhousie Lodge of Masons received an official visitation Wednesday night from Rt. Wor. Emery B. Gibbs, District Deputy Grand Master, and there was a large attendance of members and guests.

WHAT ABOUT IT, MR. VOTER?

Have you learned about the Hard Times in Business during the last Democratic National Administration? Have you been told what a Democratic Congress would do with the Tariff, and HOW IT WOULD AFFECT YOU? Has the burden of a State Tax been explained to you, and do you know how enormously the State Tax is growing under a Democratic governor?

DO YOU KNOW

THAT every vote against a Republican for Congress is an aid to a Democratic Congress and Democratic Free Trade and Democratic Hard Times? THAT every vote lost to a Republican Candidate for State Senator and Representative is no help in electing a DEMOCRATIC U. S. SENATOR FOR SIX YEARS!

PROSPERITY SPILLED BY 30 YEARS OF REPUBLICAN RULE

All Railroads, all Manufacturing Plants, all Mills and Merchants busier than ever before.

NEWTON MAN HONORED

Mr. Frank L. Nagle Elected Grand Commander of the Knights Templars

At the 107th annual conclave of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, held at Boston last week, Mr. Frank Nagle of Newtonville, was chosen to the highest office in the gift of the commandery, that of Grand Commander. Mr. Nagle is a well-known resident of this city, and has had a long and honorable career in Masonry, being a member of Dalhousie Lodge of Masons, Newton Royal Arch Chapter and a 32nd Degree Mason.

MR. FRANK L. NAGLE,

Frank Lincoln Nagle was born in Pittsfield, Schuylkill County, Pa., May 25, 1860, and is a son of the late General James and Elizabeth (Katherine) Nagle. His father left an eminent war record, serving in the Mexican and Civil wars, attaining the rank of brigadier general at Antietam in recognition of bravery. Mr. Nagle entered as a drummer boy in the state militia of Pennsylvania when very young, and received an honorable discharge after five years of service before he was the required age to enter. During this period he participated in the great Pittsburgh riots of 1877. He left school at an early age and served four years in the banking business, followed by three years as since, which now owns the representative paper of the great textile industries. He is one of its officers and stockholders and its manager for the New England states. Mr. Nagle came to Newtonville to reside in 1892 and lives in a comfortable home on Kirkstall road. He is a member of the Central Congregational Church, of the Sons of the American Revolution, of the Newton Club, the Massachusetts Union of K. T. Commanders, Dalhousie Lodge of Masons, Royal Arch Chapter, an honorary member of Charles Ward Post, G. A. R., vice-president of the Ward 2 Republican Club, and the eminent commander of the Gethsemane Commandery of Newton.

Mr. Nagle served his ward in the common council in 1897 and as alderman at large for 1898-99, performing his duty faithfully, fearlessly and conscientiously. Mr. Nagle married Laura Ida Rosengarten and has a fine family of four sturdy sons, Frank L., Jr., Arthur R., Norman C. and Robert A. Nagle.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Misses Berg entertained a company of friends at a Hallowe'en party last week on Thursday evening, at their home on Auburndale avenue. The festivities were held in the attic which was lighted with Jack o'lanterns and appropriately decorated with all the emblems of the unique season. The entertainment consisted of games and tricks, some of them very amusing, causing much merriment among the guests. One in particular, where a line of doughnuts was suspended by elastic strings from the ceiling, and the guests were requested to partake of them. A prize was given to the guest who was the first to successfully devour one. A very pretty arrangement of Hallowe'en decorations, favors and place-cards were used on the table in the centre of which was a large cake which, when cut by the hostess, was found to contain many pretty and useful prizes for distribution among the guests.

All interested in Lighting Fixtures, for their homes and public buildings, should not fail to see the display of McKenney & Waterbury Co., No. 181 Franklin St., corner Congress, an exhibition of Lighting Fixtures, to meet all decorations, including the new Equalite, the softest and most delicate indirect light known.

A proposed change in the City Messenger ordinance was referred to a committee.

Alderman Cox desired information as to authority of the city officials in regard to street widenings and was informed by the City Solicitor that only the board of aldermen had that authority, but when it had been exercised, the city was liable to the owner of the land affected. The board adjourned at 9:05 P. M.

NEW ENGLAND'S GREAT CASH HOUSE

Announce the Most Important Event in the History of New England's Greatest Cash Store

To the People of New England:

Forty years ago I started on its business career the firm now known as Houghton & Dutton Co.

It is with feelings of profound gratitude that I review the record of almost half a century. What finer evidence is needed to prove that if you treat the public well it will treat you well?

It has been my aim to build up our business on honor, to win and deserve the unwavering confidence and support of the public.

Our low cash prices and high quality merchandise were not sufficient in themselves to accomplish this. There were a thousand other additional ways in which the interests of the public were to be conserved and our mutual interests promoted. For this I have toiled, and that my efforts have not failed, the experiences of our clientele and the mammoth proportions our business has assumed, bear tangible witness on this our 40th Anniversary.

With a heart full of sincere appreciation I return my thanks to our numberless patrons, assuring them that there will be no change in this declared policy of the firm.

My three sons, who are associated with me in the business, are animated by the same business ideals and desires, and in asking for the continued support of the public I can most confidently guarantee that its interests will be served to the very limit of our ability.

Franklin F. Dutton

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE—David Belasco's production of "The Concert," that exceedingly well acted and brilliant comedy that is now being presented at the Hollis Street Theatre, begins its second and last week next Monday night. This return engagement of "The Concert" promises to be a memorable one. Mr. Belasco has made several changes in the cast, from when it was seen here last year and these changes have been improvements. The most important one, of course, being the leading female role which is now played by Isabel Irving. The main character of "The Concert" is still played by Leo Dritschtein. Mr. Dritschtein, who adapted this play from a German one of the same name, adds to the gaiety of the day by his remarkable impersonation of a musical genius. It would be hard to name another actor on the stage today who could give such a finished performance as Dritschtein does in this difficult role. "The Concert" is an unusual comedy inasmuch as the majority of the characters are portrayed by women. There are only three male parts in the play. Because of this reason it makes a particularly strong appeal to women playgoers. There will be a matinee on Wednesday and Saturday.

CASTLE SQ. THEATRE—"Madame X" has been played everywhere with astounding success. It comes to the Castle Square on Monday evening assured of a cordial reception, for it tells a strongly dramatic story, and is filled with emotional scenes. "Madame X" is an English version of a French play by Alexandre Bisson. The role of Jacqueline Fleuriet, the Madame X of the play's title, will be acted by Mary Young, and she will bring all her strong emotional powers to bear upon the character. Mr. Craig will appear in the powerful role of Lacleque. Wilson Melrose will play the husband, and others in the cast will be Donald Meek, Carney Christie, Al Roberts, Walter Walker, Mabel Colcord and Laurett Browne.

BOSTON OPERA HOUSE—The regular season subscription sale of seats having been brought to a close, the management of the Boston Opera Company makes known that during the week beginning Monday, Nov. 4th, subscriptions will be received for any part of the season of eighteen weeks. This will be of particular interest to out of town opera goers who wish to attend the performances on alternate weeks or even less frequently, for it will enable them to make a choice of their locations before the seats for single performances go on sale. Subscribers who have not as yet received their tickets, are requested to call for them at an early date, at the box office, which is open daily from ten till five.

BOSTON THEATRE—Clifton Crawford, foremost among the singing comedians of the day, has at last achieved stellar honors and under the management of Henry B. Harris will come to the Boston Theatre for a limited engagement in his new play, "My Best Girl," beginning Monday evening, November 11. There will be matinees on Wednesday and Saturday and a special matinee on Thanksgiving Day.

"My Best Girl" is frankly a musical comedy built to entertain. The book by Channing Pollock and Rennold Wolf, pleasantly remembered for their work in "The Red Widow," and the music was composed by Mr. Crawford and Augustus Barratt. The piece has just closed a long engagement at the Park Theatre, New York City, and comes with the excellent company direct for its engagement in Boston. Besides Mr. Crawford there will be found in the company some of the best known musical comedy people of our stage and a chorus of girls notable for their singing no less than their comeliness. Henry B. Harris has given to Mr. Crawford's piece the splendid production which it warrants.

The three acts are beautifully mounted and the gowns of the girls elaborate and the last word in fashion's speech. "My Best Girl" is promised, will be the best sort of musical comedy entertainment.

NEW BOOKS

Miss Frances C. Sparhawk of Newton Centre has just published another book in her Dorothy Brooke series, entitled "Dorothy Brooke at Ridgemore," Miss Sparhawk's previous books in this series, "Dorothy Brooke's School Days" and "Dorothy Brooke's Vacation," have had a flattering reception. Thomas Y. Crowell of New York are the publishers and the illustrations are by Frank T. Merrill. In the present volume Dorothy enters Ridgemore College. Here again, the closeness of Dorothy's history to the events of real life is apparent. What girl has not had high expectations of continuously triumphant career dashed, or at least dimmed, in new surroundings and new conditions? Dorothy's good sense and natural ability win the day for her in the end, despite the dean's impersonal manner and generally chilly demeanor, the English professor's careless lack of recognition of her literary merits, and the jealous scheming of the popular but dangerous Dic Chesterdown. Many new characters are introduced, as is quite natural, but the interesting plot carries along the life stories of Ned and Grace Longley, Priscy Pell, the Bridges family, and other old friends. The book as a whole is one that girls will be glad to read and reread, and it is well worth it.

The H. M. Caldwell Co. have just issued a new and handsome book, suitable for the holidays, entitled "Sweet Songs of Many Voices." It is compiled by Kate A. Wright and contains much fine verse which will be fresh to many. Amongst the names of the better known poets are Mr. Theodore Watts-Dunton, Mr. Alfred Noyes, Mr. R. C. Lehmann, Miss Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler and Mr. A. C. Benson; but the compiler has not been limited in her choice to the works of writers of the first established position.

GIFT TO MISS KILBURN

At the last regular meeting of the Summer P. Lawrence Rebekah Lodge a surprise was tendered Miss Miriam Kilburn when she was presented in behalf of the members with a beautiful silver service. Miss Kilburn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Kilburn and her marriage to Mr. George Mills of West Newton will take place November 18. Miss Kilburn was completely taken by surprise, but expressed her gratitude in a pleasing manner. There was a large company of members and friends in attendance and the occasion was a thoroughly enjoyable one.

Frank E. Judkins for 38 years engineer of Engine 1, then lived at Manchester, N. H., and was sent to the fire at the Amoskeag Manufacturing Co. of that city as stoker of the first horseless steam fire engine in existence which that company made and then owned. It arrived in Boston Sunday afternoon and was first used to draw other engines ordered home that were without horses to the railroad station and was subsequently in service several days.

Chief W. B. Randlett was on duty at the fire as a volunteer from Milton.

THE BOSTON FIRE

Newton's Share in the Conflagration of 1872

The great Boston conflagration occurred forty years ago, Nov. 9-10, 1872, and the principal observance of its anniversary will be a reunion and dinner of the survivors of the 2,163 enrolled firemen of 97 companies of 31 fire departments who were on duty at the fire including several of Newton.

The fire started about 7 o'clock Saturday evening from an unknown cause in the basement of a six-story granite building at corner of Summer and Kingston streets. It was seen more than 20 minutes before the first alarm was given at 7:24 o'clock. When the fire department arrived the building was wholly in flames but the fire would have been confined to that building had there been sufficient water. Owing to water mains being corroded to less than 2 inches in diameter the engines nearest the fire lost their supply at a critical moment which allowed the fire to cross Summer street and assisted by narrow, crooked streets and Mansard roofs, it was beyond control within an hour and a half of its commencement, and before it was under control Sunday noon it destroyed 776 buildings covering 85 acres in the business section between Summer, Washington, Milk, Congress, State, Kilby and Oliver streets to the water, with a loss of about $61,000,000. The land value of about $30,000,000 was added to the loss which brought it up to $81,000,000, but as the land was not destroyed its value can not be considered a part of the total loss.

Horses at that time were sick with a distemper and most of the fire apparatus was drawn by hand, but this did not delay the first apparatus to arrive at the fire, and had but little, if anything, to do with the fire becoming a conflagration. The result would have been the same had the horses been well.

After the fire had crossed Summer street and was beyond control, Chief John S. Damrell, inside of an hour and a half after the first alarm sent his first call for out of town assistance and continued it at intervals until midnight.

One of the first to send assistance was Newton Engine Co. No. 1, in charge of Assistant Engineer W. Parker Leavitt, and drawn by horses, arrived in Bedford street, near Washington, at 11:30 o'clock. Subsequently it was located further down Bedford near Chauncy street, where it remained until 7 o'clock Sunday morning when it was located near the Custom House in India street with its stream on the Mason Building in Liberty Square, where it remained until it was ordered home at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. This company had much to do with stopping the fire in the Mudge Building in Bedford street which its owners acknowledged by sending the company a check for $100 and A. A. Lawrence & Co. a check for $200.

Engine No. 2 in charge of Chief Rodney M. Lucas, went in by train and arrived at its first location on Washington street, near Franklin street at 11:55 o'clock. Early Sunday morning it was transferred to Broad street and was relieved at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Engine Co. No. 1 at that time consisted of H. N. Hyde, Jr., foreman; James D. Henthorn, clerk and driver; G. H. Wentworth, engineer; William Warwick, stoker; Frank A. Barrows, C. S. Fields, J. McDonald, J. Warren Bailey, F. H. Harrington, W. H. Johnson, Warren Spenser, A. McDonald, Henry L. Bixby, W. E. Glover, C. A. Hill, G. V. Chick and C. H. Bridges.

Messrs. Barrows, Bailey, Harrington, Glover, Hill and Chick survive. F. A. Barrows, who is now foreman of the company, is the only man now in the department who was a member of it at that time. George H. Haynes, Henry W. Crafts and O. S. W. Bailey are among the surviving members of Engine 2.

Frank E. Judkins for 38 years engineer of Engine 1, then lived at Manchester, N. H., and was sent to the fire at the Amoskeag Manufacturing Co. of that city as stoker of the first horseless steam fire engine in existence which that company made and then owned. It arrived in Boston Sunday afternoon and was first used to draw other engines ordered home that were without horses to the railroad station and was subsequently in service several days.

Chief W. B. Randlett was on duty at the fire as a volunteer from Milton.

INTO THE STARLIGHT

For the Children

"Can I come up to see you,
If I can fly so far?"
Said a golden maple leaf,
To a bright beaming star.

"Yes," replied the shining star,
"But, dear, you'll have to stay,
For all are so happy here,
They never go away."

"I'm so glad," said the leaf,
"I'm lonely as can be,
The others have flown away,
I'm the last on the tree."

So away, up, up, he flew,
Into the shining blue.

EDITORIAL

The election on Tuesday ought to show that it is absolutely necessary for the Republicans and the Progressives to get together. Neither can succeed with its policies without the other, and both should proceed at the earliest possible moment, to yield on all minor points and agree on the fundamental principles. The Republican party should purge itself of the barnacles of stand-patism and the so-called Progressives should dump overboard the sore heads and disappointed former Republican office-holders. There is absolutely no valid reason why two groups of Newton citizens, one represented by a man like Dr. Winslow of Lasell, the other by a man like Representative George H. Ellis, should antagonize each other. Both are good citizens, both believe in the fundamentals of civic righteousness, and it ought to be a comparatively easy matter for men of that caliber to get together, for, if they don't and good citizens continue to disagree, the door is wide open for the entrance of the bad citizen, with a most demoralizing effect on the public weal. Let us drop our differences, therefor, enlarge the polities in which we do agree, and find some mutual ground for a political union in the future which is essential for the right kind of civic growth.

The Committee on Public franchises is to be congratulated on making some progress in the attempt to remove the dangerous condition in Nonantum square caused by the standing of the street cars. The plan proposed seems reasonable enough, and if it works as well as it is planned, will prove a final solution of the problem. The Company now propose to start the Brighton cars from the Watertown car barn instead of from Nonantum square, thus removing the standing cars of this line entirely from the square. The only standing cars of the Elevated Company allowed in the square will be the new Cambridge-Arlington line, which will start from the widest portion of the square instead of from the present dangerous terminus at Jefferson street. The Brighton line of cars will have to pass around the Cambridge cars, when they are standing in the square, and this may cause some annoyance, but it will be far slighter than the congestion which now exists. The plan will be worked for a few months as an experiment.

Congressman John W. Weeks received a flattering endorsement at the polls, in spite of the presence of a third candidate. The new thirteenth district is evidently as discriminating as the old twelfth.

The circular issued late last Monday, signed by Albert F. Henrikus, attacking Representative Thomas W. White is about as contemptible piece of politics as has ever been seen in this city.

The election of Mr. Frederic H. Hilton to the state senate is a matter of great satisfaction to the friends of good government in this city and district.

MR. G. FRED SIMPSON,
Elected Member Governor's Council.

All fears of a strike by the employees of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company, because of the failure of the company to concede the demands of the union employees, were effectively set aside Monday with the issuing of a statement, signed by the general manager of the company and the president of the union stating that both parties had come to a satisfactory arrangement, with the exception of a few minor details which are certain of adjustment.

The employees complained that 18 men had been discharged for joining the union and demanded their reinstatement. It was not stated whether they would be reinstated or not by Mr. Clark or Mr. Cox.

RECEPTION

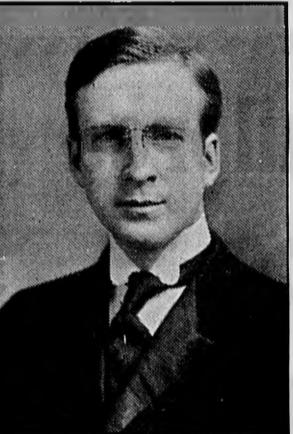

The West Newton Branch of the Women's National Alliance and the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Unitarian Church of West Newton, held a charming reception on Wednesday afternoon, from 3:30 until 5:30, in the upper hall of the parish house.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Tolman, president of the Alliance, and Mrs. Ames, the vice-president. Mrs. Jaynes, president of the Ladies' Aid Society, was unable to attend, owing to illness, and her place was filled by Mrs. Langley, the vice-president.

The hall was very attractively decorated with evergreen, and white and yellow chrysanthemums were used in pleasing arrangement on the tables. An elaborate menu was served by the Hospitality Committee of which Mrs. J. J. Mitchell was chairman. She was assisted by Mrs. Samuel N. Fleming, Mrs. L. F. Norman, Mrs. E. T. Stone and Mrs. Robert Chidsey.

Mrs. Henry Whitmore poured, and trifle was served by Miss Irene Norman, assisted by the Misses Ada Whitmore, Barbara Matlack and Beatrice Newhall, daintily gowned in white. It was a delightful social affair and was participated in by a large company of members and their friends.

CITIZENS PROTEST

against Closing of Grade Crossing for Foot Passengers at Elliot Station

Residents of Elliot and Newton upper Falls are considerably stirred over the action of the B. & A. R. officials in closing a path which crosses the railroad at the Elliot station, leading to Meredith avenue. This path has been in use ever since the railroad was built in the early eighties, and with the growth of that section of the city has become of considerable importance, not only to persons who use the railroad, but to residents of the north side of Elliot to take the street cars on Boylston street.

The railroad officials state that the use of this crossing is dangerous, for any persons persist in boarding the cars at that point on the wrong side, and either open the gates or stand on the lower steps until the brakeman opens the gates for them. It is said that only two accidents have occurred at this place, but that the possibilities of danger are very great. The closing of this crossing will require the public to walk to Boylston street, a distance of about 400 feet, and as far back on the other side.

A meeting protesting against the closing up of the walk was held in Wade School Hall, Upper Falls on Wednesday night, and despite the inclement weather a good sized crowd from both sections were on hand. The meeting was arranged by the Upper Falls Improvement Association, and the president of the

NEWTON W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. was entertained by Mrs. J. A. Gardner of 79 Jewett street Thursday, Nov. 7. Thirty members and guests present. The president, Mrs. L. L. Eaton presided. Devotions conducted by Mrs. Mick concluded with singing the hymn "All around the World." Reports from secretary and treasurer followed. voted to raise $50 for Mass. W. C. T. U. Headquarters.

A report from literature committee resulted in voting to place "The Union Signal" in Public Library. The speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. E. Birdsall, Superintendent ofances Williard Settlement Department. Her subject "A Little Glimpse to the Way the Other Half Live," was treated in a manner to convince hearers that she had studied it and become familiar with its phases, instances of family disheartenings because of small wages received, especially by women having others dependent upon them, were cited.

One instance was related of a woman having difficulty in getting relief from bodily suffering, who found her mission in uplifting her suffering low-creatures, thereby being herself uplifted and mind taken from her own troubles. The address was given to an attentive, appreciative audience. A short discussion followed. Mrs. Mason gave a short instruction talk on her work as Police Magistrate. Refreshments were served during the social hour which followed.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT

While Mrs. Edward D. Church of Vernon Court was walking on Centre street Monday evening with her husband, she stepped on some slippery substance on the sidewalk. It was thrown violently into the doorway of the store occupied by Miss E. P. Sloan, striking the heavy plate glass windows in such a manner as to break two large panes. The church was badly cut on one side and received slight cut on one side, besides being badly shaken up in the accident. She was able to walk to the Vernon Court where she received medical attention.

LUCY JACKSON CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The November meeting of the Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., was held at the home of Mrs. John P. Holmes, West Newton on Monday afternoon. The assisting hostesses were: Mrs. Charles D. Meserve, Mrs. Olin F. Herrick, Mrs. Edward K. Hall, and Mrs. Arthur G. Hosmer. Much interest was manifested in the delightful Lecture Recital on the Songs and Basketry of the North American Indians, given by Mrs. Marie E. Ives Humphrey and Rev. William Brewster Humphrey.

Rare and valuable baskets were shown, and the many little stories connected with them, were sympathetically told by Mrs. Humphrey, whose interest in the educational work for the Indians is very deep and sincere. Mr. Humphrey sang delightfully several songs which the Indians used to express the emotions of love, war, prayer and death.

During the social hour, which followed, refreshments were served by the Misses Holmes, Owen, Bond, Merchant, Pratt, Hubbard and Whittlesey. Miss Fanny B. Allen and Mrs. Arthur P. Friend, former regents of the Chapter, presided at the tea table.

TWO ALARM FIRE

Another Bad Blaze on West Newton Hill

The second fire on West Newton Hill within a few weeks, damaged the beautiful home of Mrs. George L. Lovett, 221 Mt. Vernon street, early last Sunday morning, to the extent of $3,000. Two alarms were sounded for the fire, which alone saved the house from total loss.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Lovett shortly after 3 o'clock, upon hearing the crackling of flames between the partitions. She called the other members of the family and a call was sent in to fire headquarters. Auto chemical 2 arrived on the scene before the members of the family had left the house, and the blaze had such a headway that a second alarm was sent in.

The house contained much antique furniture and bric-a-brac and the firemen were successful in bringing the contents to the street. The house was remodeled a year ago on the inside, the intense heat causing considerable damage to it. The fire originated in some waste in the cellar, and before discovered had eaten its way through the floor and was burning briskly between the partitions on the top floor.

The hard hill caused much trouble in bringing the engine to the top, and again recalls the need of better fire protection in that section.

RELATING TO THE UPPER FALLS BAPTIST CHURCH

To the Editor of the Graphic:—

In last week's issue your correspondent from Ward 5 made some startling statements concerning the Upper Falls Baptist Church in "that the church was about to give up or move to the 'Island of Somewhere' and join a company of a few persons who are now trying to start a new Baptist Church." The facts of the case are as follows: "The church at the Upper Falls some three or four weeks ago for certain reasons voted to declare the pastor vacant." The deposed pastor, with three or four of his most ardent supporters immediately conceived the idea of starting a new church which they are now trying to do.

The Upper Falls church is sound financially, owing valuable property all free from debt—have recently put the church building in perfect repair inside and outside and does not want to change its location. The society is few in number but can easily support itself in an economical way. There has been outside aid given in times past by sister churches and the State Convention, but was given to aid the pastor in charge, that is, to give him an extra salary. Its organization at present is complete with efficient officers and teachers. Regular services are held every Sunday and mid-week meetings Friday evenings.

Everybody is welcome to these services.

POP CONCERT AND DANCE

An enjoyable pop concert and dance was given last Tuesday evening in Temple Hall, Newtonville, under the auspices of Palestine Chapter, No. 114, O. E. S., the affair being attended by upwards of 300 members and friends. While the pop concert was going on, refreshments of all kinds were served, after which dancing continued until midnight. The hall was decorated with flags for the occasion, and the guests were shown the various rooms on the Masonic bodies by the members. The committee in charge of the affair comprised C. E. Ross IP, chairman; C. E. Fogg, A. C. Daniels, R. M. Goode, W. H. Halliday, E. E. Snyder, A. E. Billings and A. W. Porter.

BOY KILLED

Falls Under Wheels of Large Automobile Van at Nonantum

Ernest Fremault eight years of age, living at 5 Dalby street, Nonantum, was run over and almost instantly killed yesterday afternoon by a large automobile van. The accident took place on Dalby street near his home. The van, which was owned by Burt L. Otis of Charlestown had stopped at a store on Dalby street, and attracted the attention of a number of small boys. When Otis came out of the store he drove them away from the car and started up. The Fremault boy ran to the car and attempted to jump upon a step on the side of the car, missed his footing and fell under the machine, the rear wheel passing over his head. He was carried into a nearby house but expired almost immediately. The driver was so overcome by the sad affair, that it was necessary to call another man to operate the machine.

MEN'S CLUB OF GRACE CHURCH

The first meeting of the Men's Club of Grace Church, Newton, for the season was held in the church parlor on Monday evening, and many responded to the cordial invitation to be present.

Mr. W. C. Bamburgh of Newtonville gave a most entertaining and instructive address on "The Making of Books Before the Days of Printing." The story of the making of those illuminated manuscripts, for the possession of which the modern world is vying, is of absorbing interest and this lecture described the splendor of the volumes, the artists who made them, and the wonderful art of the illuminators and miniaturists in a comprehensive and interesting manner. Mr. Bamburgh also has a large number of examples of this work, which were exhibited and described. Mr. Bamburgh has devoted more than twenty years in collecting data and examples concerning this wonderful art.

MRS. GRAFTON SANDERSON

WEDDED AT NEWTON

Miss Dorothy Robinson the Bride of Mr. Grafton Sanderson

A charming home wedding took place on Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barnes Robinson on Kendall terrace, where their daughter, Miss Dorothy Robinson, a pretty and popular member of the younger society set in Newton, became the bride of Mr. Grafton Sanderson, son of Mrs. Grafton Sanderson of Otis street, Newtonville.

The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of roses, carnations and chrysanthemums and in the parlor, an arch separated a corner of the room which was devoted to the ceremony, the bridal party standing in a bower of roses, chrysanthemums and palms. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. H. Grant Person, pastor of Eliot Church. The Lohengrin wedding march was played by Mrs. Ober, as the bridal party entered the ceremonial room, the bride being escorted by her uncle, Mr. Allan C. Emery, who gave her in marriage.

The bride was exquisitely gowned in white crepe-de-chene trimmed with shadow-lace and wore a tulip veil fastened with lilles of the valley. She carried a bridal bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Helen F. Robinson as maid of honor, who was attractively attired in pink voile over white and carried pink carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Ray W. Spalding of Barrington, R. I., as best man.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson being assisted in receiving by Mrs. Robinson, the bride's mother, who was gowned in blue voile, and Mrs. Sanderson, mother of the groom, who wore a gown of black silk. In the dining-room, where an elaborate wedding supper was served, a pink color-scheme was carried out in the decorations, pink chrysanthemums being used in effective arrangement. The bridal table was in pink and white, with delicate tracery of ferns and foliage in the centre-piece of pink carnations, white streamers festooned from the chandelier, and was lighted with pink-shaded silver candleabra.

Both bride and groom were members of the class of 1911, N. H. S., and their acquaintance dates back to their early school days; both were prominent in athletics, the groom being captain of the N. H. S. baseball team, and the bride was considered by her friends, the "star" of the Girl's Hockey team.

An interesting feature was that Mr. Sanderson's wedding-day was also his 21st birthday. A large and varied assortment of beautiful wedding-gifts including silver cut glass, china, pictures, money, etc., indicated the popularity of the young couple, who left at a late hour amid a shower of rice and confetti, accompanied by the best wishes of their friends, among them being a Girl's Club, of which the bride was a member.

On their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson will be at home after January 1st, at 38 Otis street. Guests numbering about 75 were present from Boston, Providence, Wollaston, Barrington and the Newtons.

THEATRES

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE—One of the undoubted successes of the past season in New York was the C. Haddon Chambers' comedy, "Passers-By" which Charles Frohman produced at the Criterion Theatre early in September and which delighted metropolitan theatregoers for full four months. This season Mr. Frohman is presenting this play with Charles Cherry as the star and it is also among the big successes of the present theatrical year. "Passers-By" unquestionably owns a great deal of its popularity to its sanguine and to its humanity. It is stated that there is more real humanity in the four acts of "Passers-By" than in any play the stage has seen in years; its people are real men and women and the types which the author of "The Tyranny of Tears" and "Captain Swift" has introduced have been imitated with the greatest skill. Before "Passers-By" was produced in New York, it was the big success of its year in London. If Peter Waverton's valer had not been interested in the passers by on the street probably he would not work out his life's story in the manner he did. In the role of Peter Waverton, Mr. Cherry is said to be very happily cast and to have a part which fits him in every particular. Charles Frohman has provided an exceptionally strong company for the support of the star and has given "Passers-By" a very handsome production. Mr. Frohman presents Charles Cherry in "Passers-By" at the Hollis Street Theatre for a limited engagement which will open on Monday evening. The regular matinees on Wednesday and on Saturday will be given and an additional matinee on Thanksgiving Day.

PARK THEATRE, BOSTON—Rose Stahl in Charles Klein's department store comedy continues as one of the big hits of the season in Boston, where it has been attracting large audiences since Labor Day. There are matinees on Wednesday and Saturday and an extra matinee on Thanksgiving Day. The engagement at the Park Theatre will be the only one which Miss Stahl will play in New England, and that is limited as contracts already made cannot be postponed. So out-of-town playgoers should witness the play at the earliest possible moment. The claim is made by the Kinemacolor Co. that the film of "The Muhurman Procession and Festival" is one of the most wonderful series of pictures it has ever made. The speaker will again be Mr. Edward Freiberg whose lecture on the Durbar was heard at Tremont Temple earlier in the season. The program will have the benefit of appropriate orchestral music.

THE DURBAR—TREMONT TEMPLE

At Tremont Temple Monday evening, Nov. 18th, "The Durbar in Kinemacolor" will be revived—this time with a practically new program. Only the actual coronation of King George and Queen Mary as Emperor and Empress of India will be retained. The other reels have never been shown in Boston. The royal review of 50,000 troops will again be shown. The claim is made by the Kinemacolor Co. that the film of "The Muhurman Procession and Festival" is one of the most wonderful series of pictures it has ever made. The speaker will again be Mr. Edward Freiberg whose lecture on the Durbar was heard at Tremont Temple earlier in the season. The program will have the benefit of appropriate orchestral music.

Crawford Ranges

One very remarkable fact in connection with Crawford Ranges is that nobody ever willingly changes from a Crawford to a range of any other make.

There must be a reason—we believe there are several. The Single Damper (patented) the scientific Cup-Joint Oven Flues that heat the oven in every part alike; the Ash Hod (patented) instead of the clumsy ash pan; these are some of the Crawford time and trouble savers.

If you will carefully examine and compare the Crawford with any or all other cooking ranges you will see why Crawfords do better work, with more comfort for the cook and less waste of time and money. Send for the illustrated pamphlet.

"THE NAUGHTY PRINCESS"
 Will Have Many Newton Players in Its Cast

"The Haughty Little Princess"—a German fairy play for children—the Women's Educational and Industrial Union announce is to be presented for the first time in English on November 29th, the Friday after Thanksgiving at the Shubert Theatre. The actors are a group of young men and young women chosen from the leading members of the dramatic club of Boston and vicinity and are known as the Children's Players.

The part of the princess in the play is to be taken by Miss Margaret Hatfield, of the Lend-a-Hand Dramatic Club and the Newton Players. The Princess will be played by Mr. J. R. Osgood Perkins, also of the Newton Players. Mr. Percival F. Remers plays the King; Miss Ruth Elizabeth Upham the Queen; Mr. Robert D. Whittemore, the Cook; Miss Louise Burleigh and Miss Dorothy Streeter, the Hobgoblins, Zwicker and Nickel; Mr. Richard K. Conant, the Professor; Mr. Irving Pichel, the Dancing-Master; Mr. Irving Locke, the Ogre.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE—Without question the most notable novelty ever brought to this country by Mr. B. F. Keith for his vaudeville circuit will be seen at B. F. Keith's Theatre in Boston, this week, in "Don," the marvelous talking dog from Germany. Unlike the other so-called "talking" animals previously seen upon the stage, "Don" actually speaks words like a human being. Another big feature of the week will be the Great Fillis Family, Europe's most finished troupe of equestrians, who appear in a startling novelty introducing several beautiful blooded horses. Sherman and Hyman are a trio of young men who introduce what they call "Fifteen minutes of musical foolishness," and another big feature will be McIntyre and Groves, in their ludicrous sidewalk chat. "On Father's Train," Emerson and Baldwin are a pair of expert ball and club jugglers, and many other brilliant features, yet to be announced will complete a great bill.

BOSTON OPERA HOUSE

The repertory for the first week of grand opera at the Boston Opera House, has been made up by Director Russell. Five performances will be given—on the evenings of Monday, Nov. 25, Wednesday, Nov. 27, Friday, Nov. 29 and Saturday, Nov. 30, and the afternoon of Saturday, Nov. 30. The works selected for presentation are Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffmann" (In French) on Monday evening and Saturday afternoon; "La Boheme" (In Italian) on Wednesday evening; "Madame Butterfly" (In Italian) on Friday evening; and "Il Trovatore" (In Italian) on Saturday evening.

In the "Tales of Hoffmann" which is to be mounted with especial attention to artistic detail and which will disclose for the first time here Mr. Urban's new method of stage production, there will be a cast of exceptional excellence. Mr. Clement will be the Hoffmann, a role which he has not yet sung in public; Mr. Marcoux will have the four roles of Lindorf, Coppellus, Dapertutto, and Dr. Miracle which are the successive embodiments of the opposing force Hoffmann meets in all his adventures; Miss Fisher will be the Olympia; Miss Amaden, the Giulietta, and Mme. Edvina will accomplish her Boston debut as Antonia.

In "La Boheme" on Wednesday evening Lucrezia Bori, the new Italian soprano, will be heard by Bostonians for the first time. She will sing Mimi, Miss Dorothy being the Muse; Mr. Laflite, the new tenor whose success in Montreal this week has been so pronounced, will be Rosalfo.

"Mme. Butterfly" on Friday evening will be cast with Mme. Deslina as Cio-Cio-San; Miss Leveroni as Suzuki; Mr. Laflite as Pinkerton and Mr. Polese as Sharpless.

For "Il Trovatore" on Saturday evening, Gertrude Reynisson has been chosen to be Leonora, Miss Leveroni, the Azucena, Mr. Blanchard the Luna and Mr. Arceson the Manrico.

NEWTON WINS

The Newton Y. M. C. A. swimming team won a closely contested swimming meet Monday night at Revere, beating the East Boston Swimming Club by a score of 25 to 23.

East Boston led in the short events, but Newton pulled up in the plunge to within one point of East Boston, and by taking the relay race in a hot sprint captured the meet. Barnes of Newton finished only a few inches ahead of Tom Morris of East Boston in the final event, the summary:

SPORTS

Newton High showed a marked improvement over its previous work, in its annual game with Waltham H. S. football team last Saturday, and the outcome of the game which resulted in a victory for the Waltham team 3 to 0, was much better than the followers of the local team had expected. It looked very much like a no score game, as Pagan had missed five tries for a goal from the field before he succeeded, although a few of the tries were made under adverse conditions.

The game was attended by upwards of 5000 people, which, with the exception of the Somerville game, was the largest crowd that was present at a game this year. Both teams were unable to gain to any extent through the lines, the ball being kept most of the time near the middle of the field. Waltham managed to get the ball to Newton's 2-yard line in the third period, but the local boys held fast and prevented their opponents from scoring a touchdown.

Waltham scored its goal from the field in the last quarter, Pagan kicking the ball over the crossbar from the 35-yard line. Johnson, Pendlebury and Day played a good game for the winner and Capt. Willbur, Brady, Roquemore and Hyatt excelled for the Newton team.

Newton's big game of the season will be played this afternoon on Clifton Field, when Brookline H. S. eleven, conquerors of the Waltham team, will be their opponents, the game being the second in the Triangular League series. Much hinges on this game, as the Newton team, if victorious, wins the championship title. Coach Dickinson has sent the boys through hard practice this week for the game and all the men are in the best possible condition, and feel confident that the game will result in a victory for the orange and black.

Charles E. Lauriat Company are offering some great inducements for early holiday buyers this year. Their special sale of English books, being held this month, is having the result of inducing many shrewd buyers to take advantage of the opportunities offered and buy the books now, putting them away for next month's needs. But whether wanted as holiday gifts or for one's own collection, the books they have brought over this season are about as enticing a lot as has ever been seen in the city—the prices helping materially to make them so.

It is a matter of regret that the name of Petee has been eliminated from the manufacturing plant at the Upper Falls which has borne that name for so many years. The business was established by the late Otis Petee about eighty years ago, and has been conducted under the names of Otis Petee & Co., Petee Machine Works, Petee Machine Shops and the Saco-Petee Co. The change to Saco-Lowell Co. removes a time honored name.

While the railroad situation at Eliot is most annoying to the traveling public, common sense will uphold the attitude of the railroad company in its attempt to prevent accidents. The proper solution of the matter is the construction of a subway similar to that at Auburndale or an overhead bridge, similar to those at Chestnut Hill and Newtonville. Matters like this are never settled until they are settled right.

The municipal primaries next Tuesday will excite a mild interest in Newton and Newtonville, but the absence of a mayoralty nomination detracts greatly from the popular attention.

While a large truck, carrying the stump of one of the large trees removed from Chestnut street, was crossing the street railway tracks on Washington street opposite the Congregational church yesterday afternoon, the breaking of the rear axle, caused a delay to the street cars of about five minutes, while the steam roller could be run from Marlinton street to the place of the accident and pull the truck and its burden to one side. Later the roller carried the stump, which weighed about two tons, on a drag to the Pine street yard.

THE CHRISTIAN FORUM

The first in the series of five union services, under the auspices of the Protestant Churches, and Y. M. C. A. of Newton was held Sunday evening and was an immense success, the large congregation, numbering fully 700, taxing the capacity of Grace Church.

Dean George Hodges, D. D., of the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, spoke graphically on "The Christianity for the Twentieth Century," and at the close of his address, answered a dozen or more questions.

The meeting was intensely interesting, the rector, Rev. Dr. MacLure assisting in the service, and special music was rendered by the boys' choir.

The Christian Forum was initiated by the pastors of the six churches in Newton, two laymen being added from each church. It was decided to have one service each month to unite all religious forces, and seek to establish a common platform for the whole religious community.

Subjects relating to the religious life will be presented by speakers of great ability and at the close, there will be an open forum, with opportunity for asking questions on the address of the evening.

The committee aims to make these the greatest religious meetings ever held in the city, and seek the co-operation of all church members. The next meeting will be held the second Sunday evening in December, at Eliot Church, and it is expected that Dr. Washington Gladden, of Columbus, Ohio, will be the speaker.

Each service will be arranged by the pastor of the church in which the service is held, and there will be a special program of music. The committee is under the following chairmanship: Mr. J. Wesley Barber, Publicity Committee; Mr. H. A. Wilder, Financial Committee; Rev. H. Grant, Person, General Committee, The Program Committee, Rev. Harry R. Chamberlin, chairman; Rev. Dr. Laurens MacLure and Mr. Carleton Ellison.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Master Kenneth Gordon Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albion C. Brown of Otis street entertained a party of friends on Saturday afternoon, the occasion being a celebration of his ninth birthday. It was a red-party, a red color-scheme being carried out in the decorations, and the table presented a most attractive appearance, with red carnations, favors, etc., in pleasing arrangement.

A large birthday cake surrounded by red candles formed a centre-piece, and the merry company of little guests grouped around the table, completed the picture. When the cake was cut, it was found to contain a prize, which fell to the lot of Markham Duffield.

It was a most delightful affair and the afternoon was spent in the enjoyment of games and dancing, a fine program of music being furnished by Mrs. Wilmetton Duffield of Newton Highlands. Kenneth's friends presented him with a number of very pretty presents.

DEATH OF MRS. NYE

Mrs. Sarah H. Nye, widow of the late Nathaniel F. Nye, died Friday, Nov. 8th, at her home on Grove street after a long period of illness. The deceased was for many years a resident of Auburndale, and was 80 years of age. The funeral took place Monday at the Church of the Messiah.

Impressive services were conducted at 11 A. M. by the rector, Rev. John Matteson. The remains were taken to Sandwich, Mass. for interment.

CONCERT AND SOCIAL

An interesting concert and social was given Wednesday evening at the Hunnewell Club hall by the choir and Women's Auxiliary choir of Grace Church. A fine program of vocal music and dancing was given by the choir, quartets composed of Misses Denton and Sladen, Messrs. Hansen, Carlson and Ross, and soloists by Mr. Leighton and Bradford Story. The solo dancing by Miss Harris deserves special mention, arousing great enthusiasm. The accompanists were Mrs. George Owen and Mr. Grant Frost.

DEESTRICK SKULE

Mr. Irving O. Palmer presided over the "Deestrick Skule" session Friday evening in the parlors of the Central Church, and exercised a degree of discipline worthy of the schoolmaster of "ye olden time."

The following gentlemen served on the committee: Messrs. Greene, Bevan, and Lyons, and among the pupils, some of whom displayed almost human intelligence, were, W. C. Bamburg, W. H. Allen, G. W. Auryansen, E. E. Savory, R. A. Anderson, W. Marshall, F. Mann, Messrs. Judkins, Strong, Professor Taylor and Dr. William Ois Hunt.

Refreshments were served at the close of the entertainment and a pleasant social evening was passed.

Auburndale

The first in the course of entertainments by the Auburndale Village Improvement Society was held Tuesday evening in Norumbega Hall, a large audience being present. Thomas' original Jubilee, presented an exceptionally fine program consisting of readings, character songs in costume, plantation songs and negro melodies, which were received with great enthusiasm by the audience. Mrs. Irene Board favored the audience with a coro, solo and vocal selections. The entertainment closed with dancing.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURR, Editor.

In the death of Mrs. Sarah S. Platt Decker last July at San Francisco, the club movement all over the country has sustained a great loss. Probably no one woman in the country has exerted greater influence for this movement and others kindred to it than did Mrs. Decker. Those who saw her at the Boston Biennial will recall her breezy way of presiding, her quick repartee and how she never let a session lag. She it was who urged club women to make reports interesting and amusing and not merely a list of dry statistics.

The August number of the General Federation Bulletin was made a memorial to Mrs. Decker. In an article about her written by Dr. Cornelia B. DeBey, who was with her during the sessions at San Francisco and attended her during her illness says:—

"Where is the woman who has her all-round womanliness, her gracious, penetrating kindness, her unfailing knowledge of affairs and general good judgment? She typified to all of us complete normality. She was strong from whatever aspect we contemplate her and she escaped the unfortunate distinction of being in any way different from anyone else; and thus it was that she was wholly great. She was not conspicuous; she was just great."

Her last public address was a marvelous plea for the Endowment Fund of the Federation. The same article says of it: "It was brief, yet it contained in its appeal an irresistible call to the energies of a common sisterhood. It pictured the vast resources and possibilities of the Federation, latent and unused, the unending needs of its varied departments, and the simplicity and ease of fulfillment. It epitomized the only legitimate function of so seemingly wasteful and inarticulate a gathering as is that of the nine hundred thousand organized women of the country. No one could wish to leave a last speech that might contain more of understanding, of vision and of undying hope."

Mr. Philip N. Moore, former president of the General Federation has proposed making the Endowment Fund a memorial to Mrs. Decker which seems a fitting thing to do. Toward the $10,000, which was asked from Massachusetts, already over $6,000 has been secured. It is hoped that with the added incentive of this memorial the full sum may be made up. One of the colleges of Colorado is raising money for a building which shall be a memorial to Mrs. Decker, and has sent appeals to the clubs for contributions. As the State Federation meeting at Warren on Monday was suggested that the clubs which wish to honor Mrs. Decker would do so by contributing to the Endowment Fund rather than dividing the interest between the two objects.

The study of Argentina will be continued next week. There was the usual social hour with refreshments.

At a meeting of the Pierian Club on Wednesday afternoon the "Government of Ireland" was considered by Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Gallison. After the program a social hour was enjoyed.

The Review Club met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Bridgeman on Nov. 12. Local Happenings

At a meeting of the Newton Highlands Monday Club on Nov. 11, Mrs. H. W. Kimball presented facts concerning the different industrial schools of Massachusetts and described many of them, both day and night schools. After the usual recess Miss Hildreth, a member of the State Board of Education, supplemented what had already been given with further information of the work of these schools, dwelling particularly upon those for girls, which are her especial charge.

Songs by Mrs. F. S. Fatrich, one of the members, completed a very interesting afternoon.

The C. L. S. C. of Newton Highlands met with Miss Anna S. Thompson on Monday afternoon. After the usual five-minute contributions of general topics of the times, the club turned its attention to the study of Argentina as presented by Mrs. S. D. Whittemore, Argentina, she said, from the commercial standpoint, is at the head of all nations of the world. It has great mineral wealth, and is the greatest food producing country of the world. The soil is very fertile, so that anything can be raised there at any place. Cattle raising is its greatest industry and should the meat supply fall in the United States, we should turn to Argentina for our supply. The climate varies in different localities, but as a whole it is very much like that of our Gulf States. Buenos Ayres, the capital, is a very beautiful city, the architecture is magnificent, there being whole streets lined with beautiful buildings. It is a city of great wealth and fashion. There are many social affairs and one custom, which surprised the members, is that of making the funerals great social functions. All nationalities are found there.

Of the other cities mentioned were: Rosario, the second city in size; Cordoba, with its university and noted astronomical observatory; Bahia Blanca, which has the only harbor where a battleship can anchor. Of the provinces, Rosario is famed for its wheat raising; Mendoza for its fruit growing, almost every kind being produced; and Patagonia, the last place to be occupied by civilized man.

The study of Argentina will be continued next week. There was the usual social hour with refreshments.

AMATEURS WIN HIGH PRAISE

Four Splendid Performances of San Toy at Players Hall

After undergoing numerous changes and improvements, particularly on the stage, Players Hall was thrown open on Monday evening for the first of our performances of the Chinese comic opera "San Toy," by a strong cast of principals and a chorus of forty voices. Last spring these same young people presented "H. M. S. Pinafore" to us in a style fully professional, but we are glad to see that they were not content to rest on laurels won at that time, but have ventured into larger fields.

"San Toy" was first presented to the New England public in 1901, at the Boston Museum, by the Augustin Daly Musical Organization, and scored an immediate success, and it took considerable courage to undertake the presentation of such a work by entirely amateur talent. But we have no hesitation in saying that the performances fully warranted the choice, and we doubt if there is any light opera on the boards today that this organization could not do creditably, it could be staged for them. Miss Margaret Hatfield in the title part made the hit of the show, and her singing and dancing were a great delight to her audience, while her acting was so natural and sweet that it merits unstinted praise. She is certainly an artiste. Her voice was strong and pure and true in all her musical numbers—she played San Toy to perfection. In the boy's costume of the first act she was indeed fetching. The principal comedy part was entrusted to Mr. J. R. Osgood Perkins, and too much cannot be said in commendation of this gentleman's work. His acting was remarkably good and he used no opportunities to bring out all the funny points in his lines, while his singing and dancing greatly pleased.

Miss Elizabeth Upham had the part of "Dudley" and it suited her to perfection. As the vivacious lady's maid she scored a decided success, singing with her usual grace and dancing as well. Her duet with Mr. Perkins in the second act with its dance in the gurus was one of the best things in the performance.

Mr. W. V. V. Marsh and Dr. Leslie Naylor were novelties to Players Hall, though familiar figures in dramatics at the Hunnewell Club. As the mandarin "Yen How" Mr. Marsh was inimitable, and added greatly to the strength and pleasure of the performances. His topical verses in the cond act provoked much laughter and well merited applause. As the student, "Po Hcp," Dr. Naylor made the utmost of the part. It was to be regretted that he had so little opportunity for the display of his voice, which is a tenor of robust quality. In the duet in the first act, with San Toy, however, he sang admirably.

From "Dreaday" to "Lieut. Bobbie Preston" was quite a transformation, Mr. Ralph Somers accomplished the feat successfully. He made a only and captivating lover, and there was a naturalness and grace to his acting that proved him a man of much dramatic ability. His fine baritone voice was heard to excellent advantage in several musical numbers. Miss Evelyn Gorton, as "Poppy" was captivating and sweet to look upon and singing and dancing were among really artistic bits of the opera. Clinton Kyle played "Lieut. Tuck" in a bright and airy manner and sang and looked exceedingly well. To Miss A. V. Beal fell the part of the "Emperor" and she certainly gave it a thoughtful presentation. Her portrayal of the effeminate monarch deserves great commendation and her make-up was great. Miss Ruth Stutter was Captain of the Emperor's

SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Fales Observe Twenty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Emerson Fales entertained at a large reception on Saturday evening at their residence on Highland street, West Newton, the occasion being a celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. The floral decorations were superb, the color-scheme of each room being carried out in the flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Fales received from 8 until 10 in the reception room, which was artistically decorated with southern smilax and Taft roses. The library was glowing with the sun-shine of yellow roses and yellow chrysanthemums, and in the dining room where an elaborate menu was served, there was a profusion of American Beauty roses used in pleasant arrangement on table and mantles.

Mrs. Fales was exquisitely gowned in pink satin with point lace and wore a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

The first period was nap and tuck, with the Brookline team making the greater gains. On one occasion Brookline landed the ball on Newton's 1-yard line, but were unable to score, Newton punting the ball out of the dangerous zone. During the second period Brookline by straight line plunging carried the ball to the 5-yard line, when Capt. Thielacher carried it over for a touchdown and kicked the goal.

Although McCraw made a sensational run of 30 yards during this period, the backs were unable to bring the ball any closer to the goal line. The forward pass was tried several times with poor results, and the excellent punting of Brady kept the ball out of Newton's zone.

The Newton team entered the game after the half with renewed spirit, and for a time tore through the Brookline line for long gains, Brady, on a cross tackle play, which was the only play during the game that proved a ground gainer, made 30 yards, and Hyatt, on a punt formation, sent a well directed forward pass into the outstretched arms of Harris, who was waiting behind the goal line. Brady kicked the goal, making the score tied.

A brilliant assemblage of guests prominent in social life and numbering nearly 400 were present from Springfield, Fall River, Beverly, Boston, Wellesley, Brookline and the Newtons.

RANDOLPH—DELANO

A pretty home wedding of interest to Newton people took place last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Otis Delano, 41 Washington street, when their daughter, Miss Alice Curtis Delano, became the bride of Mr. Charles Philip Randolph, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Randolph of Pittsfield. The couple were joined in marriage by the Rev. Julian C. Jaynes, pastor of the First Unitarian Church, West Newton.

The maid of honor was Miss Marion Jones of Newton, and the best man was Mr. Linzee Hooper of Boston. The bride was gowned in white brocade charmeuse with draped skirt and waist of delicate Venetian point lace over chiffon, caught on sleeves with orange blossoms.

She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids. The maid of honor's gown was of yellow charmeuse, with a waist of gold lace, edged with brilliants, and draped skirt. She carried yellow roses. Mrs. Delano wore a gown of white embroidered crepe de chine with butterflies worked in brilliants on waist and skirt, and wore a corsage of lavender orchids.

Following the ceremony the couple, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. William Otis Delano, parents of the bride, Miss Marion Jones and Mr. Linzee Hooper, received the guests, the rooms being profusely decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, yellow roses and Southern smilax, and the stars were decorated with smilax, palms and ferns. The ushers were Mr. Winthrop Mandell of New York, cousin of the bride, Mr. Curtis Delano, brother of the bride, Mr. Ralph Goeth of Austin, Texas, and Mr. Leland Powers of Newton.

At the close of the Thursday night's performance, Misses Mary and Sallie Sprague were presented by the members of the company with a pendant of pearls and a pearl pin, respectively. The ushers were Mr. Winthrop Mandell of New York, cousin of the bride, Mr. Curtis Delano, brother of the bride, Mr. Ralph Goeth of Austin, Texas, and Mr. Leland Powers of Newton.

During the evening appropriate musical numbers were rendered by Handley's orchestra, Lohengrin's March being played at the ceremony. The young couple departed on an extended wedding trip, and will be at home to their friends at 9 Elizabeth street, Pittsfield, after Jan. 1, 1913.

DEFEATED AT FOOTBALL

Brookline High Plays Better Game Than Newton In Triangular League

Newton High School's hopes of winning the Triangular League Championship were somewhat shattered when the Brookline H. S. eleven defeated them in their annual game played last Friday on Clafin Field, Newtonville, by the score of 10 to 7. Newton played fair off its usual form, while the Brookline team greatly strengthened during the past month, outplayed them in all departments of the game.

The first period was nap and tuck, with the Brookline team making the greater gains. On one occasion Brookline landed the ball on Newton's 1-yard line, but were unable to score, Newton punting the ball out of the dangerous zone. During the second period Brookline by straight line plunging carried the ball to the 5-yard line, when Capt. Thielacher carried it over for a touchdown and kicked the goal.

Brady kicked the goal, making the score tied.

As the game progressed from this point it looked very much as if the game would end in a tie score. Neither side scored during the third period. During the last quarter, Brookline carried the ball to Newton's 30-yard line, when Capt. Thielacher, who had scored all the points registered by the Red and Blue team, again dropped back for a drop kick. The ball came back accurately and the next minute was sailing over the crossbar, giving the Brookline team a lead which the home team was unable to overcome.

Thielacher, who had scored all the points registered by the Red and Blue team, again dropped back for a drop kick. The ball came back accurately and the next minute was sailing over the crossbar, giving the Brookline team a lead which the home team was unable to overcome.

As the game progressed from this point it looked very much as if the game would end in a tie score. Neither side scored during the third period. During the last quarter, Brookline carried the ball to Newton's 30-yard line, when Capt. Thielacher, who had scored all the points registered by the Red and Blue team, again dropped back for a drop kick. The ball came back accurately and the next minute was sailing over the crossbar, giving the Brookline team a lead which the

—A service will be held at the Church of the Good Shepherd on the morning of Thanksgiving Day at 9:30 and the children will take baskets of vegetables and food to be distributed to the poor.

—While riding his bicycle on Windsor road on Saturday evening, Arthur Wiley, son of Mr. Sterling P. Wiley of Windsor road collided with a motor wagon, going in the opposite direction and suffered a dislocated knee as the result of the accident.

—The Women's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd held their "Harvest Supper" in Bessey Hall last Saturday evening, entertaining at that time a larger number than on any previous occasion, after the supper dancing was enjoyed.

—The Beacon Club enjoyed a pleasant evening in Waban Hall Wednesday when Mr. Newton Newkirk entertained the members for an hour and a quarter. The members then enjoyed a social hour with refreshments. Ten new members were voted in.

—The Ladies' Circle of the Union Church served a supper to a large gathering of members and friends in the vestry of the church last Friday evening. An orchestra furnished music during the supper and a short musical entertainment was given after the supper, with readings by Mrs. Putnam. Later in the evening a loving cup was given to Rev. Andrew W. Archibald, D. D., the presentation speech being made by Mr. J. Porter Russell, after which an informal reception was held by Dr. Archibald and Rev. Charles H. Cutler, D. D., the present pastor of the church.

—Mrs. Pietro Isola of Beacon street entertained the Luncheon Whist Club on Thursday.

—The Union Church had its second monthly supper last Friday evening, when more than 140 sat down to the well-laden tables. The occasion was utilized as a kind of farewell to the retiring minister, the Rev. Andrew W. Archibald, D. D., and as a welcome to the incoming pastor, the Rev. Charles H. Cutler, D. D. Potted plants adorned the rooms, an orchestra played, and readings were given by Mrs. F. H. Putnam. Dr. Archibald voiced the welcome to Dr. Cutler, who was enthusiastically received by the people rising to their feet and giving him the Chautauqua salute. Then came a surprise, to which J. Porter Russell, after paying a warm tribute to Dr. Archibald for his two years' service, gradually led up, as he presented him with a large and chaste loving cup of sterling silver, on an ebony base. It is inscribed with the recipient's name, and with these words, "Presented by the Union Church, Society, and Sunday School of Waban, in loving appreciation of his splendid work among us, resulting in the organization of our Church and erection of the church edifice. Nov. 15, 1912." Mrs. Archibald was given a beautiful bouquet of violets and orchids, and Mrs. Cutler, who could not be present, sent an abundant supply of carnations, whose perfume was much in evidence.

THEATRES

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE.—What in many respects should prove the most notable event of the season at B. F. Keith's Theatre is announced for next week, in the appearance of Ada Reeve. Miss Reeve, is recognized as the cleverest singing comedienne on the English music hall stage today, and it is safe to say that Boston has never seen anything just like her. Miss Reeve will appear in a repertoire of serio-comic character songs, all written especially for her, and all new to American audiences. The bill surrounding this brilliant European star is as yet rather incomplete, but the acts so far engaged signify that it will be one of the strongest of the season. "Chuck" Riesner and Henrietta Gore have a novel specialty entitled, "It's All in A Show," including bits of mimicry, comedy, songs, dances and funmaking. Phineas and her troupe of Pickannines will introduce a singing and dancing act different from anything previously seen here, and Lydia and Alibon are European contortionists with a spectacular electrical production.

BOSTON THEATRE—Clifton Crawford, he of the merry ways and light feet, will begin the last week of his engagement at the Boston Theatre next Monday in "My Best Girl," written by Channing Pollock and Renold Wolf, while the hitting lays with which it is embroidered were composed by Mr. Crawford himself and Augustus Barratt. There will be a special matinee Thanksgiving Day in addition to the regular matinees Wednesday and Saturday. We all remember Mr. Crawford not only for his performance in "Three Twins" but in vaudeville and other entertainments, and it is enough to know that in "My Best Girl" there is humor of the sort he is best at and music which he can sing attractively and times to which he can dance gracefully. There are some nineteen musical numbers and Mr. Crawford's introductory song, "If the Morning After Were the Night Before" is in his very best humor, and then he has fascinating dance numbers called "Come Take a Dance With Me," which speaks for itself.

CASTLE SQUARE THEATRE—"Othello" will be the first Shakespearean production of the season at the Castle Square. It will be given next Monday, and will be continued at every performance throughout the week. It will be remembered that "Othello" was given at the Castle Square two seasons ago, and that Mr. Craig made a notable success in the title character, and this revival of with elaborate scenery is bound to be no less popular.

With the strong company at the Castle Square the play will be cast exceptionally well. Mr. Craig will play Othello as heretofore, and in Mr. Melrose he has an actor fully capable of giving a remarkable portrayal of the character of the villain Iago. Desdemona will be acted by Miss Young, with Mr. Meek as Cassio and all the other roles carefully allotted among the members of the company.

Among other preparations for an early Xmas trade this season, the Lauriat Co. have brought over from London this fall a most remarkable lot of English books of which they secured special limited quantities this summer, in many cases at half of their ordinary cost. Many of these are especially adaptable for presentation, particularly to bookish people, who are looking for something a little out of the ordinary.

SOCIAL AND ENTERTAINMENT

An unusually attractive program, including talent of a high order, was presented for the entertainment at the social held Friday evening in the parlors of the First Unitarian Church, West Newton.

Mrs. Thomas Weston, Jr., was heard in pleasing illustrations of the violin pieces by Wlenski and Strube. Miss Helen Alley sang with excellent effect, "Carmena," and "The Gondola Waltz," with violin obligato by Mrs. Weston.

Miss Marie Bartlett, the well known professional reader and impersonator, delighted the audience with her recitations of Kate Douglas Wiggin's "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," Joe Lincoln's "Boy Stories," and "Rosa" and "Angelina," by Stanley Schell and Paul Laurence Dunbar. Miss Bartlett has won for herself an enviable reputation as a reader of more than ordinary ability and the commendation she received was well merited.

The musical portion of the program was greatly appreciated, was indicated by the enthusiastic applause of the large audience. Mrs. Albert Palme Carter presided at the piano.

At the close of the entertainment a collation was served and dancing was enjoyed.

CHARITY WHIST

A delightful social event of the past week was the charity whist by the members of the Woman's Association of the Boston Association of Retail Druggists, which was held on Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Arthur Hudson on Washington street, Newton.

The game was at five tables, and three prizes were awarded to the successful participants. The first prize, a handsome set of chinc ice cream dishes, was taken by Mrs. C. V. Dager of Newton. Mrs. W. B. Judkins of Newtonville was the winner of the second prize, a chinc bon-bon dish, and the third prize, a book of postage stamps, was captured by Mrs. Kelley of Dorchester.

It was a very enjoyable occasion, and at the close of the game refreshments were served by the hostess.

A delightful program was arranged, consisting of character songs and piano-logues by the well-known entertainer, Mrs. Paul Rovere Knight; a finely executed piano solo by Miss Mildred Colby; and clever readings by Miss Alice Proctor.

There was a large and appreciative audience and the entertainers were obliged to respond to several encores. The proceeds are for the piano fund, a new piano having recently been added to the equipment of the parish house.

At the close of the entertainment, dancing was enjoyed in the parish hall, a fine program of popular music being furnished by Cole's Orchestra.

The annual appeal of the Newton Hospital for contributions from the various churches has become as much of a local institution as Thanksgiving itself, and will no doubt be answered in our usual generous manner. The good work which this institution is doing every day surely entitles it to the careful consideration of each good citizen, at least once a year. Be sure, therefore, to give or send your contribution, either thru your own church, or directly to the treasurer, Mr. George R. Pulsifer of Newtonville. It is well, also, to remember that he gives twice, who gives promptly.

Y. M. C. A. SWIMMING

An exhibition by members of the Newton Young Men's Christian Association Swimming Club was held Wednesday evening, in the Newton pool. The failure of the Greater Boston Swimming Club, which was scheduled to meet Newton in a dual meet, to appear, disappointed many who had gathered to witness the events. In addition to the club race an exhibition of fancy swimming and diving was given by members of the Brookline Gymnasium Swimming Association.

STICK TO IT!

Stick to the job; that's all, old man. Just stick, and do the best you can! However tired you get, or blue, Stay with your job and see it through!

I guess you'll learn, before you're done, That getting there is all the fun, And that you never do "arrive" So long as you remain alive.

Of course you want to "make a name;"— But happiness is more than fame, And happiness is just a trick— To find the job you like, and—stick!

$10,000,000 Fund Set Apart For Pensions and Insurance

GOES INTO EFFECT JAN. 1

Provision For Superannuation, Injury by Accident, Sickness, and For Life Insurance Payable to Dependents—Most Complete Plan Ever Applied Anywhere

On Jan. 1, 1913, a $10,000,000 fund will be applicable to pensions, sickness and accident benefits, and life insurance for all employees of the Bell telephone system and associated interests, including therein the Western Union Telegraph company and the Western Electric company.

Among the associated companies affected are the New England Telephone and Telegraph company and its allied companies, which will supplement their present pension plan by the substitution of this much broader proposition. It is the intention, however, that the status of those already pensioned shall not be affected.

The plan for the distribution of this fund has been characterized as the most liberal, comprehensive and ideal ever inaugurated. President Vall has provided combined benefits for superannuation, sickness, accident and death, for an industrial army more than twice as large as the standing army of the United States.

This provision is made entirely at the expense of the various companies interested, without contributions of any kind from the employees themselves. The application of these varied benefits will be strictly democratic and will be for the benefit of employees of every rank.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

The Newton Federation appeals to the loyalty of the club women to show their practical belief in the "Merits System" by casting their votes for retaining Mr. Albert M. Lyon as a member of the school committee from Ward 2. Mr. Lyon has served the city but one term and has proved himself to be a valuable member of the committee. It is the opinion of the Education committee of the Federation that it would be a great misfortune to the schools should he fail to receive a re-election.

Local Announcements

Local Happenings

The meeting of the Monday Club on Nov. 18 opened with a musical program. Miss Miriam Bates accompanied by Miss Wentworth rendered the following group of songs: "An Open Secret," Woodman; "Daddy's Sweetheart;" "Parla," Ardite. Mrs. H. H. Shumway rendered a Nocturne by Chopin. Then came a most interesting lecture by Miss Laura Wentworth of the Mechanic Arts High School of Boston on "Vocational Guidance." Miss Wentworth told of the requirements for admission to this school, that a pupil must be a grammar school graduate, of the four years' course and especially of the advice and supervision given the pupils in helping them to decide what sort of occupations to take up and of the assistance given them in securing positions. Her hearers could not be impressed with the great value of the work which is being done in the way of vocational guidance. A social hour with refreshments closed the afternoon.

The C. L. S. C. of Newton Highlands met with Mrs. Darius Cobb on Monday afternoon. The study of "Argentina" was continued under the leadership of Mrs. Logan. Mrs. Logan told how for the first three centuries of its settlement only Spaniards were allowed in the country, that the ports were closed to foreigners and then emphasized the wonderful growth there has been in the last ten or twelve years since the country has been opened to all nations. She told of some of the sports of the city of Buenos Ayres, that of racing being the chief. The people are natural born gamblers. The one club of the city is the Jockey Club for admission to which members pay an initiation fee of $4,000 and an annual fee of $150. In speaking of the art of the country she mentioned particularly the architecture of the fine cathedrals and a beautiful theatre in Buenos Ayres. Their educational theories are not unlike those of this country but are not carried out as well. The religion of the country is Roman Catholic and it is stipulated that only Roman Catholics can hold the office of president or vice-president. The only Protestant church is of the Methodist denomination. Mrs. Logan also devoted some time to a description of the new Trans-Continental Railway over the Andes, which has rendered Chili nine days nearer to London. Formerly the journey from Argentina to Chili was by water consuming about ten days, now it can be made in a little more than a day by means of this new railroad.

There were the usual reports of timely topics from different members and the social hour.

Mrs. George K. Heald entertained the Waltham Woman's Club at her home on Monday afternoon, November the eighteenth, Mrs. Janet H. Putnum, the president, in the chair. Interesting reports of the State and Newton Federation meetings were given by the delegates, Mrs. Josephine Crain and Miss Grace Miller. The business meeting was followed by Mr. William U. Swan's very enjoyable and instructive talk on "The Collection and Distribution of News." He spoke of the fascination of newsgathering and then described the Associated Press, known among newspaper circles as the "A. P.," often said to mean "always present." He said that this Association consisted of eight hundred papers, all paying for its support and electing the officers, thus making its news worldwide, impartial and correct. The news is distributed by means of several clearing houses, one situated here in Boston, and a central one in New York. Each house has at the head an editor to select the most important news from about four times as much material as could possibly be used. This news is then telegraphed from city to city and so spread all over the world in a very short time.

On Tuesday, November 19th, the Auburndale Review Club was entertained at the home of its president, Mrs. William A. Knowlton, Hancock street. The members, their daughters, and those of the waiters, were invited to meet. Mrs. Wilkins, president of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, who spoke of the work of that organization. Mrs. Collier told of the effort being made to provide a medical social-worker for the Newton Hospital.

Mrs. William Fuller entertained the club with recitations, Mrs. W. J. Spaulding sang, and Miss Miriam H. Heron played some selections upon the violin. Mrs. Nelson Freeman accompanied with the piano. A reception and social hour then followed.

After the program there was a reception to the guest of honor, Mrs. Wilkins, and a social hour with refreshments. Among the outside guests present were Mrs. B. E. Taylor of the Social Service Committee of the Newton Federation, and Mrs. Charles T. Bartlett, a vice-president of the Federation.

At the meeting of the Newtonville Woman's Guild on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 19, Mr. Everett W. Lord spoke upon "Child Labor." Mr. Lord dwelt upon the fact that it is not a question of how easy the work may be, but of one of confining the children in close rooms and of keeping them at one sort of monotonous occupation for many hours at a time which results in stunting their bodies and their minds.

While the work of newsboys and messengers has not these disadvantages, it leads to nothing better, and they are merely "beating time."

He described some of the evil conditions that surround the night messenger service. Mr. Lord urged the necessity of uniform child labor laws in the states and pointed out some of the deficiencies in the present Massachusetts laws. Vocal selections by Miss Leslie Kyle added to the pleasure of the afternoon. There was the annual exhibition of the Needwork Guild which included a large number of garments, which will be distributed among the various philanthropic organizations of Newton. Tea was served by the Charitable committee, of which Mrs. E. P. Hatch is the chairman.

Mrs. E. C. Cooper entertained the members of the Pierian Club at an evening meeting on Wednesday. Mrs. Cooper presented a paper on the "Music of Ireland" and illustrated it with songs. Miss Helen Newell played some Old Irish Music upon the piano. Miss Locke read several Irish Poems and Miss Marion Bassett gave some impersonations, which she called "Up-to-date Irish." There were also songs by Miss Roberts. The whole made a very enjoyable evening's program.

The members and guests of the Social Science Club had an unusual treat at its meeting on Wednesday morning, Nov. 20, in the address by Miss Elizabeth Kendall, Professor of History, at Wellesley College.

Miss Kendall's topic was "Through Western China" and under it she told of a trip which she made through the westernmost provinces of that country in order to observe the people where they are untouched by contact with European and other outside ideas. She made the journey accompanied by her Irish terrier dog, a Chinese interpreter and some fifteen or twenty coolies, who carried her sedan chair, cooked her food and performed such other services as were necessary. She was quite away from European comforts, but found the Chinese inns most enjoyable. She said that she had no difficulties and suffered no awkward experiences. It was easier for a foreigner to take such a journey than it would have been for a native and she had many advantages on account of being a woman and being alone, from being no longer young, for they reverence gray hair, and she felt, too, that it was an advantage to be an American. Her dog, being a kind unknown in that country, attracted much attention.

Among her impressions of the people she cited, how extremely western they are, far more like us than the people of India. They sit on chairs as we do, they eat as we do, make of the meal a social function. They treat their religion as the average western man does—put it away for weekly or yearly use instead of being continually engaged in religious performances. She found the people democratic. Her interpreter, while of higher class than her coolies, did not object to eating with them. They are extremely self-reliant, they understand co-operation and organization. She was impressed with the sense of their power. They seem to be old, but not aged—old and experienced. The individual counts for a great deal and yet you never deal with him alone. You have to contend with the Guild behind him. She found them ever ready to give a full return for the money paid and the service rendered was a cheerful service. She closed her talk with a description of her visit to the sacred mountain, Omei-shan, and her stay there in an old monastery. Many little details, which were most interesting, were brought out in response to questions from the members.

On Friday, Nov. 8, at 2:30 P. M., at Players' Small Hall, the West Newton Women's Educational Club opened its season with the usual routine business, Mrs. J. R. McLean reporting the annual meeting of the State Federation held in Templeton, last June.

A most interesting and instructive lecture by Mr. Frank H. Daniels on "The Furnishings of a Modest House" was presented to a large and appreciative audience. The afternoon closed with music and social hour.

The next regular meeting will be held at Players' Small Hall on Nov. 22, 2:30 P. M.

At the regular meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday, Nov. 13, the subjects considered were "The Boy Scout Movement—an Aid to Good Citizenship" and "The Camp Fire Girls."

Mrs. J. W. McIntyre opened the subject with a short account of the Scout Movement, and a few words about the Scouts of Newton. There are three troops in Newton Centre, one in Nonantum, in Auburndale, in Newtonville and in Newton proper.

The Newton troop, consisting of eighteen boys, is under the charge of Mr. Woodworth, Scout Master, and Mr. Palme, Assistant Scout Master.

The boys meet on Tuesday evenings in the Y. M. C. A. building and on Saturdays go on "bikes" to Blue Hill, Prospect Hill, etc. They had a camp on Waban Hill, but that is too close to the trodden way, and they are hoping to have a genuine camp outing next summer for which they are trying to raise $200.00 by selling candy from door to door.

The movement as an aid to good citizenship was treated by Mr. Ormond E. Loomis, Executive Secretary of the Greater Boston Council Boy Scouts of America. His words were well chosen and carried weight. The Scout oath which must be sworn to before a boy becomes a scout is as follows:

On my honor I will do my best:

1. To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the scout law;

2. To help other people at all times;

3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

Mr. Loomis' elaboration of this showed plainly what a splendid effect the training a boy gets as a scout will have upon his future as a man and a citizen.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Grimes of Woburn, Guardian of the Camp Fire in that town, gave an extremely interesting account of this movement to make the girls more efficient as home-makers, mothers, and citizens.

There are three grades of Camp Fire Girls—Wood Gatherers, Fire Makers, Torch Bearers. With the assistance of her friend, Miss Theodora Richardson of Woburn and Mrs. McIntyre, all dressed in the ceremonial robes, Miss Grimes showed the proceedings of a monthly Council, bestowing the ring of the Wood Gatherer on one and the red feather of the Fire Maker upon the other.

These addressers were much enjoyed and the lesson clearly seen that the most important thing today is the treatment of the boy and girl from twelve to eighteen years of age.

The Newton Centre Woman's Club was most fortunate to have as speaker on Thursday morning, November 14th, Mr. Robert Lincoln O'Brien, private secretary to President Cleveland, Washington Correspondent for the Transcript during later administrations, and at present editor of The Boston Herald. His talk was based on intimate knowledge of affairs in Washington, a sane and just estimate of the inevitable friction between the Taft and Roosevelt factions, and of the wide difference of character in the two men. He spoke of Taft's well-known inclination and personal preference for the Supreme Court position which, but for family reasons, would have taken him out of the presidential race; of the lack of strong and quick decision, so contrasting with Roosevelt's rapid action—and due perhaps to the lack of storm and struggle in his life, in which dignified and honorable positions have come readily; and also of his high ideals, worthy purposes and large preparation.

Mr. O'Brien spoke, too, of the change in type of government and issues since Cleveland's administration, and of the present belated sociological emphasis in this country.

It was with regret that all rose to go when Mr. O'Brien finished, regret that he could not speak longer.

Mr. Loomis' elaboration of this showed plainly what a splendid effect the training a boy gets as a scout will have upon his future as a man and a citizen.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Grimes of Woburn, Guardian of the Camp Fire in that town, gave an extremely interesting account of this movement to make the girls more efficient as home-makers, mothers, and citizens.

There are three grades of Camp

Fire Girls—Wood Gatherers, Fire Makers, Torch Bearers. With the assistance of her friend, Miss Theodora Richardson of Woburn and Mrs. McIntyre, all dressed in the ceremonial robes, Miss Grimes showed the proceedings of a monthly Council, bestowing the ring of the Wood Gatherer on one and the red feather of the Fire Maker upon the other.

These addressers were much enjoyed and the lesson clearly seen that the most important thing today is the treatment of the boy and girl from twelve to eighteen years of age.

The Newton Centre Woman's Club was most fortunate to have as speaker on Thursday morning, November 14th, Mr. Robert Lincoln O'Brien, private secretary to President Cleveland, Washington Correspondent for the Transcript during later administrations, and of the present belated sociological emphasis in this country.

It was with regret that all rose to go when Mr. O'Brien finished, regret that he could not speak longer.

JANITORS ORGANIZE

The janitors and engineers in the Newton Public School have formed an organization under the name of the Janitors and Engineers' Association, for mutual benefit and good fellowship. Jeremiah E. McMahon of West Newton was elected president of the association.

MOUNT IDA SCHOOL

During the present term the chapel exercises at the school have been conducted at various times by various clergymen, among whom have been Rev. H. Grant Person, of Eliot Church, Rev. Harry R. Chamberlin, of Immanuel Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Charles L. Merriam, of the North Church, Rev. Harry Lutz, of Channing Church, Dr. Lacount, of the Methodist Church, Rev. George H. Parkinson, of the Newton Centre Methodist Church, Dr. Charles H. Moss, of Malden, and Dr. L. H. Clevenger, of Somerville.

Mr. W. L. Hubbard, of the Boston Opera Company, will give an opera lecture on Saturday evening, December 1st, in the living room of the school. Mr. Hubbard will be assisted by an accompanist from the Boston Opera Company.

The school has had its enrollment during the year entirely full, with the largest number of students in its history. Because of some very pressing applications several rooms have been added to the accommodations, since the term opened, and even these added accommodations are now practically all taken.

NONANTUM SQUARE RELIEF

Aldermen Authorize Change by Boston Elevated Railway to Relieve Congestion. Other Important Matters Acted upon at Midnight Session

The meeting of the aldermen on Friday evening was noticeable for three things, first the passage of the annual appropriation order, carrying nearly $100,000 more than the budget for the present year, the passage of orders intended to relieve the congestion of Nonantum square, and a session lasting until after one o'clock in the morning. In addition, the board deliberated on the budget behind closed doors, at a meeting held by the Finance committee to consider an order for $150 for double windows for the Hyde school house. Incidentally this order was also passed.

Every member of the board was present, except Alderman Heard, who is in Washington. President Gray was in the chair and there was the usual number of hearings. The petition of the Edison Co. for poles on Waltham street was favored by Mr. Gould of the Company and by Mr. W. Palmer and Mr. Charles A. Wilson, and opposed by Mr. A. S. Killian, Dr. Robert Chapman, Jr., and Capt. S. E. Howard. Written remonstrances were received from Abbott Rice and Henry J. Ida against Edison poles on Summer street, while the petitions for poles on Webster street and Warren avenue were unopposed.

Mr. Matthew C. Brush appeared for Boston Elevated Railway Co. on petition for change of crossover Nonantum Square. Mr. Brush explained that the change was intended to relieve the Company to relieve the congestion in the square by running its Oak Square cars to the Watertown car barn.

Messrs. Fred H. Daniels, John T. Burns, Francis V. Lund, Mrs. Martha Gregory, Mrs. J. W. Crowell and Mrs. Emma M. Sibley appeared in favor of laying out, under the betterment act of Oakwood and Uplands, and Mr. Edwin M. Richards in opposition. No one appeared the proposed widening of Hammond street, on the keeping of gasoline by W. Emerson on Jewett street or on location of an engine and boiler Crafts street by A. H. Boyd.

Mayor Hatfield sent in a communication relative to the need of fire of storage at City Hall, to cost $500, and the request of the Police for a small transfer.

Petitions of W. J. Hackett for 2 tables on Lincoln street, of Paul Burrage, John T. Burns, M. C. Lafarge, F. James and Albert H. Pitt for auctioneer licenses were presented. Other petitions received from the Boston & Worcester Street Railway Co. for approval of road at Elliot and Boylston streets, load and unload freight, McLean for laying out of Sharon avenue under the betterment act, Alvord et al for change name of portion of Glibbs street to Dalton road, Telephone Co. set to Dalton road, Telephone Co.

exercises in the school chapel. Dr. Deneen's address was of an intensely practical nature, and was enjoyed greatly by the faculty and young ladies of the school.

The school closed Wednesday noon for the Thanksgiving recess. Those girls who live in New England have for the most part, returned to their homes, taking with them many of their school friends who live in distant parts of the country.

Last Saturday evening the Senior class gave in the gymnasium an entertainment for the school and their friends, which was very greatly enjoyed.

FATAL ACCIDENT

School Boy Killed at High School in Automobile Collision

Alfred D. Rice, Jr., residing at 71 Walker street, Newtonville, was run over by an automobile last Friday afternoon, and received injuries from which he died a few hours later at the Newton Hospital.

Rice was thirteen years of age and a freshman at the Newton High school, was riding a bicycle and came out of Russell court at the close of school, at a high rate of speed, just as two automobiles were passing on Walnut street, headed towards Newton Highlands. It is thought that young Rice believed there was only one automobile, altho both machines were sounding their horns, and running at only a moderate rate of speed. He was noticed to lose control of his bicycle when he reached the street, and altho the driver of the automobile, Fred Bliss of Russell court, used every effort to avoid collision, they came in contact about in the middle of the street, Rice being thrown under the automobile, the fall fracturing his skull. No blame attaches to the driver of the automobile, which was owned by Mr. James P. Richardson of Madison avenue, Mrs. Richardson and two ladies being passengers at the time. The accident happened just at the close of school, when the sidewalks were filled with pupils and Officer Seaver was within a few feet of where it occurred.

The funeral services held at the Rice home on Walker street, Monday noon, were largely attended and there were many beautiful flowers. Rev. John Goddard officiated. At the close of the services, the casket was placed on a special electric car and taken to Woodville, where the interment took place.

Candidate for School Committee

The citizens' candidate for election to the School Committee from Ward 2 is Mr. Nelson B. Vanderhoof. He received his education in the public schools and Harvard College, and subsequently went into business, studied at the Evening Law School and was admitted to the bar after Dec. 31, and establishing rate of pay for police department also adopted.

A recess was taken at 9:30 for "ten minutes or more" and the session was not resumed until 12:55 A. M., the members of the board discussing the 1913 budget in the large committee room.

When the regular session was resumed, Alderman Miller reported the annual appropriation order, saying that the printed form had been amended by increasing the pay of the firemen to $1200 per year, an addition of $320 to the department appropriation, by making the salary of captain of police $2000 with the understanding that he was to retire on half pay the first of next year, by adding $18,000 to the street appropriation for extraordinary repairs, by increasing the school appropriation to $342,633, as requested by the school committee and by increasing the salary of clerk in the Charity department to $750.

The other items in the order are given in another column. The total figures are $1,344,796.83 and the order was passed unanimously. The board adjourned at 1:07 A. M.

The school closed Wednesday noon for the Thanksgiving recess. Those girls who live in New England have for the most part, returned to their homes, taking with them many of their school friends who live in distant parts of the country.

Last Saturday evening the Senior class gave in the gymnasium an entertainment for the school and their friends, which was very greatly enjoyed.

SCHOOL APPROPRIATION

Finance Committee of Board of Aldermen Reviews the Entire Situation and Recommends a Reduction From School Committee Figures heretofore at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen.

It never before has complained that the vote was passed too late nor did it complain this year until after the vote was taken. And although all members of the Board were at all times accessible to the members of the School Committee, it did not ask that this vote might be passed earlier so that the School Committee might make their commitments on the faith of it.

The Finance Committee had the matter under consideration throughout the spring months and delayed in taking final action advisedly for several reasons: among others, it wanted to ascertain the needs of other departments, the probable tax rate, the outcome of certain legislation affecting the finances, all of which could be better known in June than in March. Action was further delayed until June, as June was the date of the two previous similar votes and June had before been, as far as was known, a satisfactory time for the School Committee.

If anything unforeseen had happened since June 24th to change the situation, the Finance Committee would be glad to recommend an additional appropriation. At this time it does so in one particular in order to cover any possible legitimate requirement.

The June figures were made up on the basis of the 1912 School Budget of $324,000, but it now appears that the School Department was obliged to spend $2500 additional on account of unexpected attendance of pupils from the parochial school, etc. The Finance Committee never asked for a hearing before the full Board. If so, it would certainly have been granted. The School Committee did appear before the Finance Committee, and as usual presented tentative figures and the Finance Committee listened to everything it had to say. Later, the Chairman of the Committee on Schools and the Finance Committee held a conference with the School Committee, which had not then determined on its final figures. Subsequently the Committee on Schools of the Board had a meeting in June, at which the matter was further discussed, and thereafter Alderman Gray had a conference with the Superintendent and told him what was proposed, and he presented to the Board a letter giving the figures of the Superintendent, and the Superintendent, representing the School Committee at all times knew of the action of this Committee. Alderman Gray opposed the report of the Finance Committee when the Board met in June, basing his opposition on figures furnished to him by the Superintendent for that purpose (which figures have since proven to be erroneous). One of the members of the School Committee was at City Hall on the evening of the final vote in consultation with him and other members of the Board on the matter.

Doubtful Propriety of Lobbying
Since June 24th so much pressure has been brought to bear upon members of this Board and so many statements have been made to them that it seems necessary at this time to make a written report explaining the situation as thoroughly as possible. The Board of Aldermen have been pursued this Fall by constant pressure from the School Committee, which has even gone so far as to try to induce high-minded citizens possessing no knowledge whatsoever of the figures involved or of the ultimate consequences of any unwise action, to exert their influence on members of the Board to alter their final vote of June 24th and their regular procedure in this matter. We believe that this unusual pressure is of extremely doubtful propriety, is against public policy and has given, especially to members of the Board who have not been able to acquire a thorough knowledge of the subject, a one-sided view of the question involved. We believe that the Board should consider this matter broadly and calmly and without undue pressure, having in mind not only the effect of this particular item at this time upon this Department, but having in mind the whole financial situation of the City and the outlook for the future. The same amount or half the amount of pressure exerted on all the items would create an impossible tax rate. We believe that we should consider, in fairness to all, and without undue pressure, not only the needs of this Department but also the needs of those departments which, while equally necessary and deserving, have not attempted to create a lobby behind them.

Charter Places Responsibility Upon the Aldermen

The School Department should clearly bear in mind that to the Board of Aldermen is given the responsibility of co-ordinating the expenses of all departments. If it is disinclined to be co-ordinated and is willing to assume full responsibility for its extraordinary expenditures, it should apply to the legislature for a change in the City Charter, giving it a certain number of dollars from the tax rate, as is done in Boston, Cambridge and other cities, but although this has been suggested to the School Department, it has shown no desire to accept this full responsibility. The School Department should certainly conduct its affairs in harmony with the present system with the same cheerful, co-operative spirit which is to be expected from all other City Departments, at least until such time as it expresses its desire to change such system.

The Board of Aldermen does not desire to follow the School Committee into questions of specific details of its budget. All the Board can do is to say to the School Department that in the best interests of the City, there is only a certain amount of money available for all, and that the School Department must make such use as it can of its allotment. We are very clear that the School Department should not attempt to make any extraordinary change in its system with the present system with the same purpose of stirring up public sentiment to obtain increased appropriation—that they should not attempt, for example, (after increasing salaries to the extent of $15,000) to abolish the kindergarten for this purpose, that such an action would be as grossly improper as for the Highway Department, if dissatisfied with its appropriation, to attempt to stir up public sentiment and force the Board to appropriate more money for it by leaving large holes in public squares and other obvious unabated nuisances.

Foresight as to Proper Development
It is certainly the duty of the Board of Aldermen not only to use care and prudence as to the details of current expenses, but at this time to foresee the growth of the City and to make intelligent provision for City planning. Our indebtedness is decreasing at the rate of $100,000 a year, while our valuation is increasing at the rate of $1,250,000 a year. By normal increase in the population of the City will nearly double itself and reach upwards of 80,000 in twenty years. Newton is naturally adapted for and may be made a high class residential city and enjoy all the benefits which come from large valuation and receipts from large personal and real estate valuations. But many of our main highways such as Walnut Street, Chestnut Street, Hammond Street and others will be a real handicap to our development. The civic centres in each of our villages should be enlarged and beautified and this city

CAPTAIN HOWARD DEAD

Chairman of School Committee Stricken with Apoplexy Tuesday Morning

The community was shocked on Tuesday to learn of the sudden death that morning of Captain S. Edward Howard, chairman of the school committee, and one of the most prominent residents of West Newton. Captain Howard had been in his usual health, and only the evening before had attended a hearing at the City Hall. He was stricken with apoplexy early Tuesday morning, while shaving himself.

Capt. Howard was born May 16th,

1840, on a farm at Jamaica, Vt., where he worked and taught school till 1861, when he enlisted as a private in the 8th Vermont Regiment, in which, two years later, he became Lieutenant. In 1863, at the battle of Bayou Teche,

Louisiana, he volunteered to run with a message several hundred yards past

blazing rifle pits, and through showering bullets. For this, Congress, in 1894, awarded him a medal "for most distinguished bravery." In 1864 he was promoted to the

EDITORIAL

The travelling public in general and the residents of Newton Corner in particular, are to be congratulated that some measure of relief from the dangerous congestion in Nonantum square is to be given in the near future. Changes authorized Monday night by the aldermen are now being made by the Boston Elevated Company, and within a few days the present Oak Square line will start from the Watertown car barn, instead of from Nonantum square, while the Cambridge cars which now start from Jefferson street, will be moved farther east to a point about opposite the post office, where the street is considerably wider. The plan is to be experimental, as it is thought there will be some objection, and it will be tried for a few months, before final action is taken.

In this connection, the objection taken by several aldermen to the passage of the orders on Monday night, seem incomprehensible. Alderman Calkins' position, in particular is illogical. He admits the necessity of relief and favored the order allowing a change of crossover, but opposed the spreading of the tracks between Nonantum square and the Watertown line, which is absolutely necessary in order to allow the safe passage of the larger and wider cars. While this point was not emphasized in the aldermanic debate, it is true that running the larger cars to and from Watertown makes it necessary to spread the tracks a few inches, as the present width on a few hundred feet of track is too narrow for a safe passage of the cars. The widening of the tracks, therefore, is as much a necessity as the change of the crossover.

It is true that the Company first asked for this widening last spring, with a view of running a wider car on the Cambridge line, and the new plan only forces the issue to the front. Alderman Calkins' contention that the board should not grant further franchises to the Company unless the Company in its turn makes concessions to the city, is not in harmony with the spirit of the present day and backs back to the bickering and dickerling which was common twenty years ago. Today public service corporations are being treated in a man to man fashion, with better service and better feeling on both sides as the result.

While the conclusions reached by the Finance committee of the city government on the advisability of accepting the act for one day off in five for firemen, were ignored by the full board in the matter of immediately increasing salaries in the fire department, the reasons advanced should be studied by every voter in the city. When it is thoroughly understood that the city now has the right to grant this one day off in five, when in the judgment of the city government it is advisable, the necessity of ordering it done by a popular and practically revocable vote, is hardly apparent.

The increases in the salaries of the policemen and firemen will meet with hearty popular approval, although personally, I believe the fire department matter should have waited for the action at the city election on the one day off in five question. However, the increase is deserved in both departments, and the service should now be more attractive to the class of men our citizens would like to see appointed to office.

The action of the aldermen in discussing the budget behind closed doors is not in accordance with the spirit of the city charter. The public has a right to know what aldermen favored increasing the school appropriation, what aldermen favored granting an increase of pay to the firemen, regardless of the one day in five proposition, and what aldermen favored the large increase in the street appropriations.

The action of the aldermen in increasing the street appropriation by $18,000 for special repairs is to be recommended, even if the amount, added to other increases, makes a large addition to the tax levy. Our streets have had but routine attention for many years and the necessity for a comprehensive plan for improvement is most pressing.

NEWTON BEATS BROOKLINE

Brady the Star in a 33 to 2 Win.

While the snow fell for the first time yesterday morning, several thousand people watched with interest, regardless of the weather conditions, the annual game between the Newton and Brookline H. S. elevens on Clinton Field, when the local team more than evened matters on the defeat sustained earlier in the season, by trouncing the Brookline team 33 to 2. The team showed remarkable improvement over the team that represented the school during the season, the line, which had been the weak spot, showing up particularly well.

The eagerness to win the game by starting before the ball was set in play cost the Newton team more than a 100 yards in penalties.

Both sides scored a safety during the first half. In the first period Brady made a run of 25 yards on a cross tackle play, but the ball came into possession of the visitors, after Harris missed a drop kick from the field. Brookline was unable to make the necessary 10 yards in three rushes, and their punt only carried for 13 yards. Brady was called again to carry the ball, and with several Brookline players hanging on his back, he was successful in scoring his first touchdown.

Brady received the ball again of the kick off and was downed after a 50 yard run, time being called at this point. At the opening of the second period with Newton holding the ball on Brookline's 20 yard line, Brady again scored a touchdown, although during the rush his jersey was ripped off his back. Several successful forward passes were made by Newton during the period, and before the period closed Roquemore made a pretty drop kick from the field from the 30 yard line, making the score at the end of the first half, Newton 19, Brookline 2.

Newton made two attempts to score on drop kicks during the third period, but in each case the ball went a little off the mark. During the last quarter Newton regained the ball on a fumble, and after a series of line gains Hyatt went over for the fourth touchdown. Brookline again kicked to Newton, and after an exchange of punts, Newton carried the ball to the 5 yard line, where McCraw went over for the last touchdown.

Brady's work in the contest was exceptional. His work on the line was perfect, opening up large holes for the backs, carried the ball time and again for long gains, made two touch-downs, and kicked the goal from the 4 touchdowns registered by the Newton team. His side partner, Roquemore, also performed in brilliant fashion, as did Capt. Wilbur and Harris.

Brookline's defeat by the Cambridge team eleven last week caused a three-cornered tie to exist in the Triangular League, but yesterday's contest had no bearing on the deciding of the championship. This is the first time in years that a tie was registered by three teams, and although the Newton team are willing to play off the existing tie, the other teams have announced that their season has ended.

FIREMEN'S DAY OFF

Finance Committee Recommend That Act be Rejected at the City Election

The Standing Committee on Finance, to whom was referred the probable cost should the City accept the Act to give firemen one day off in five, also as to whether it would be advisable for the City to so vote, presented herewith its reply.

Cost

As organized at present, one day off in five would require five additional permanent men at an initial cost of about $4500, increasing within two or three years to $5500. Expressed in percentage, this would amount to a cost or increase of 11 per cent in the pay roll of the department. It would equal 6 cents in the tax rate. The percentage increase and the increase in tax rate due to this proposed change would probably be permanent.

Benefit

Whatever benefit to the City would result would be only an indirect benefit due to making the requirements of the service less stringent and, hence, improving the attractiveness of the work and thereby bringing better men to the department. It is impossible to measure this benefit in money value. It is doubtful if the character of the men in the service would be materially improved.

Necessity

There is certainly no necessity for the change. The men are now healthy; they are not overworked; the morale of the force is good. The present time off, amounting to one day in eight, is amply sufficient to obtain—and a further popular vote if it was deemed best to return to present conditions.

Financial Considerations

There are very serious financial objections to accepting this Act. The members of the Fire Department have petitioned for an increase in pay, no increase having been granted the permanent men since 1899. This request is a just one and should be granted, provided the City can afford to do so. Unfortunately, nearly every department of the City has presented very insistent demands for material increases in their appropriations. Without resulting in an impossible tax rate all of these demands cannot be granted, and practically every department must curtail its supposed requirements. Neither a general increase in pay for members of the Fire Department nor the increase that would result in the acceptance of the "one day off in five" has been included in the department estimate for 1913. Therefore, these amounts still further swell the possible department increases, compared with the budget of 1912, and make the granting of all the items still more impracticable.

The normal annual increase in assessed valuation of the City is about 1.6 per cent, whereas the normal requirements for general city government may increase somewhat more rapidly than this and result in gradually increasing the tax rate. Such requirements cannot increase much faster than the assessed valuation without inviting financial disaster.

The tax rate of the City for this year was $17.40. To pass a budget equal to the department estimates, without considering additional expenditures such as the above increase in pay and the expense due to "one day off in five," would mean a probable tax for 1913 of $19.60, a possibility which cannot receive the serious attention of this Board. A consideration of those figures will clearly indicate that, from a financial point of view, we must be bound by the necessities of the situation and not by sentiment as to what we would like to do.

The financial aspect of the question may be put in another light: Each one of us individually is dealing with the "cost of living." This Board has a cost-of-living problem to handle for the City which is no less difficult than that for the individual. Besides the normal increase in the expense of government due to the increase in our population and demands, we have to deal with the increased cost per unit of work done, due, in turn, to increase in the cost of supplies and labor with decrease in hours of work.

It is the duty of this Board to so handle the City's cost-of-living problem that the unit cost of city service may advance only where necessary and proper treatment of the city employees makes such an advance unavoidable.

Another important consideration, is the fact that under the present law, the city government has the power to grant this one day off in five and to repeat the same, if conditions warrant. If the act is accepted by the people however, this option will be made mandatory and would require further legislation—perhaps difficult to obtain—and a further popular vote if it was deemed best to return to present conditions.

Conclusions

Inasmuch as one day off in five is not necessary to the health and efficiency of the members of the Fire Department, then comes the question, assuming that the City could afford an added expenditure of about $5000 annually in the department, what would be the best way to spend it. Is it not natural to first think of improving the service? We have received recently rather insistent demands for increased equipment and more men tributary to West Newton Hill and Mount Ida. The apparatus of the department, although maintained in excellent condition, is rapidly getting antiquated through the introduction of motor trucks and, in the next few years, will require material improvement and expenditure in that direction. In the line of study and recreation for the permanent men, it is the daily routine that needs improvement rather than the weekly routine. Drills, instruction in building construction, fire-fighting methods, especially changes due to the introduction of motor-driven apparatus, etc., as well as some opportunity for outdoor recreation in the vicinity of stations, would be of direct benefit to the individual members.

Your committee, therefore, believes that the granting of one day off in five would prevent the granting of demands of the department that are certainly more urgent and would delay the introduction of needed improvements in the service.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

MISS GRACE M. BURR, Editor.

Now that Thanksgiving is over, the club women will be turning their thoughts toward the Christmas holidays and the preparations entailed. It is well to remember that the clubs were among the first to urge the "shopping early." This is a matter that bears repeating each year as the time comes around. Do it not only as early in the month, but also as early in the day as possible. This will react upon one's own comfort, which certainly must appeal to the selfish person as well as to the thoughtful. Much might be said of this matter, but nothing but a hint is needed to remind the club women of their responsibility. Another volume might be written upon the manner of Christmas giving. Why not eliminate all unnecessary Christmas gifts? At any rate do away with all spirit of barter. Because Mrs. A. gave Mrs. B. a remarkable and expensive gift last year, for which Mrs. B. had not the slightest use, why should she feel under obligation to return an equally expensive article to Mrs. A. the next year? If the gift is prompted by love, it matters not what the value, but it comes from merely a sense of duty, then it had better not be given at all. The friendly exchange of greetings among casual friends is sweet and pleasant and to be encouraged, but many Christmas lists will bear revising. However, in this revision do not omit the children nor those who, perhaps, would refuse charity as such, but would not at Christmas decline to receive some much needed article of comfort, which otherwise must be foregone.

Let not Christmas be a burden, but make of it a real joy—a joy because someone has been made happy by your thoughtfulness.

Rev. Frederick W. Perkins, D. D., minister of the Universalist Church in Lynn, spoke at the monthly afternoon meeting of the Newton Centre Woman's Club on Thursday last. His topic was "Civic Opportunities for Women." For him the "civic awakening" of women today is not to be superficially considered as a sign of restlessness, but an extension, a following out, under changed and new conditions, of woman's world-old interest in whatever pertains to children, education, handicrafts, etc. Among the opportunities for social service he singled out and dwelt at length upon the opportunity of teaching English and civics to foreigners (especially to the foreign women on account of their peculiar women) as a service of incalculable civic importance. The danger in connection with the coming of foreigners is not from the foreigners, he said, but from the unprincipled Americans who wish merely to exploit these foreigners. He spoke of the wonderful work in the teaching of these people by the Y. M. C. A., as in Cambridge, of the North American Civic League, of the eagerness of the people to learn of their naturalization-tasks, and of the need of reaching them on the grounds of personal contact, and human fellowship. Dr. Perkins spoke also of the States' responsibility toward widowed mothers and children left destitute.

The West Newton Women's Educational Club held its regular meeting on Friday, Nov. 22. After the business meeting musical selections were delightfully rendered by the Misses Vrodt and Whinney. The program was in charge of Miss Helen Gilmore, who presented Mrs. George J. Barker, president of the Waltham Woman's Club. Mrs. Barker told of a visit to Hull House, Chicago, and of her meeting with Jane Addams. The paper was most interesting and was greatly enjoyed. After the program there was the usual social hour in the tea room, which was in charge of Mrs. C. E. Conant.

At the meeting of the Newton Highlands Monday Club at the home of Miss Webster on Nov. 25th, Mrs. C. H. Keebler gave a delightful review of "The Clarence" by William John Hopkins of Wellesley Hills. After the recess a humorous play entitled "How the Story Grew," was presented by several members of the club with Mrs. Bowen in charge.

"Uruguay" was the subject of the paper given by Miss Abbott at the meeting of the C. L. S. C. of Newton Highlands at its meeting on Monday afternoon. This country is the smallest of the South American countries, being of about the same area as our State of Nebraska. It is, however, very important, ranking third commercially. Geographically it lies between the Atlantic Ocean and the Uruguay River and is very nearly surrounded by water. The country is very rich in minerals, amethyst and topaz being common. Meat raising is its great industry.

CONG. WEEKS' LEADERSHIP

The result of the election in the 13th Congressional district is very gratifying to Republicans, not only there, but throughout the Commonwealth. The large vote cast in re-electing Congressman Weeks would have been very complimentary under any circumstances, but under the existing conditions it amounted to a remarkable political and personal tribute. The democratic wave carried all before it in an unusual number of districts, and with a candidate of but ordinary strength the 13th district would easily have changed front. It is estimated to be normally republican by about 2,000. Congressman Weeks received a plurality of over 2,200 and this notwithstanding his democratic opponent was able and popular, and the third party candidate polled nearly 6,000 votes. These figures show unmistakably that many democrats voted for Captain Weeks. He ran far ahead of the party vote for president, and his success was the most significant of any Congressman's throughout the state.

But the reason therefor is not far to seek. Mr. Weeks is one of the best equipped legislators in the House of Representatives. He has accomplished many things during his Washington career, due to his thoroughness, his grasp of the large questions of the day, his sincerity and broad-mindedness, and his ability to convince others. The voters in his district, realizing that there never has been time when experience and ability such as Mr. Weeks possesses were more necessary in our legislative halls, expressed their approval and confidence by casting an unexpectedly large number of ballots for him. This tribute is fully deserved, and is concurred in throughout the state.

Such emphatic approval of his public record by his constituents is highly important, and may justly be considered symptomatic of the position he holds in the estimation of the voters throughout the state who realize that Massachusetts has no abler man representing her in Washington today. The power of accomplishment and facility for constructive legislation which have been displayed by Congressman John W. Weeks makes him the logical selection for junior senator from Massachusetts.—Amesbury News.

Taking these figures and the cost per pupil in each department gives the following result:
Increase 54 in Grades at $40	$2,160.00
Increase 16 in Classical High at $67.50	1,080.00
Increase 87 in Technical High at $84	7,308.00
Total	$10,648.00
Decrease 3 in Kindergarten at $32.56	97.68
	$10,450.32

The actual increase the Finance Committee gave the School Committee was $11,000. It is true that the Superintendent of Schools last Spring told us he would prefer to leave out the machine shop room in the Technical High School rather than keep down his appropriations in other directions, but we were not bound by that view. We felt that the City was committed both to the public and to the scholars to complete the Technical course and that the machinery was a lasting benefit, and we therefore purchased it and included in our figures the $2,500, which the machine shop would cost, although it was not clear why that should not be taken care of in large part by the provision for increase of pupils.

Extraordinary Increase
The total amounts appropriated in the Budget of 1899 for School Dept. were about $218,000; all other dep'ts. $325,000.

Budget of 1911 for School Dept. $461,000; all other dep'ts. $788,000.

The percentage of the school expenditures compared with all other expenditures has risen from 24 per cent in 1899 to 58.8-10 per cent in 1911.

The tax rate has increased from $15.40 in 1899 to $18.60 in 1910 and has fallen to $17.40 in 1912.

It is clear that the increase in tax rate is due to the abnormal increase in school appropriation and that all other departments have been skimmed.

Our public buildings have not been kept up, great main thoroughfares like Washington Street, Boylston Street and Beacon Street have fallen out of repair, the City is poorly lighted, the Fire and Police Departments are inadequate to protect the citizens, both need more men and increased salaries to keep the departments up to the proper standard. Our failure to furnish an all night lighting system is an invitation to burglary, and in the face of all this, the Superintendent of Schools regards us as "one of those fortunate communities . . . that is quite able to spend still more" for education than it is now doing.

Having all these things in mind, we believe it a fair proposition that the School Committee should in future base its demand for increase only on an increase in pupils; that this principle was necessary to enable proper physical improvements in the City to be made.

We made up the figure of $335,000 as follows:

Budget for 1911 $324,000.00

Maintenance of machine shop room 2,500.00

2 1-2 per cent for increase in pupils 8,100.00

Total $334,600.00

We then added $400 to be liberal with the School Committee and made an even figure of $335,000, which is 2 1-2 per cent that we added for increase in pupils was a matter of fact liberal estimate. The increase this Fall is almost exactly 2 per cent. When the figures were made up we had before us a letter from Alderman Gray SEVEN giving us the figures which were furnished him by Dr. Spaulding as follows:

Kindergarten, 577 pupils at $32.56 $18,787.00

Grades, 4728 pupils at $40.189,120.00

High & Tech., 1623 pupils at $80.84 131,203.00

Total $339,110.00

These figures were manifestly erroneous, as they made a total of some $7,000 more than the School Committee ever had to spend in any one year.

Alderman Gray at that time said that on the basis of these erroneous figures, he would favor an appropriation of $337,000 for the coming year.

The Finance Committee deemed certain other figures for the school year 1911-1912 furnished by the School Department as more reliable. They are as follows:

Newton High School Academic per pupil $67.50

Newton Technical High 84.00

Grades 40.00

Kindergarten 32.66

These figures were submitted to us to prove to us that the Newton schools cost less than other similar schools, and we have no reason to doubt the accuracy of the figures. The increase in pupils for the present school year compared to the last school year as given to us by the Superintendent under date of Nov. 24, 1912, shows the following figures:

the 58 per cent of the Budget which we now give for that purpose.

We think it only fair to suggest to the School Department that we cannot carry on a college—that it is not our province to compete with the Institute of Technology and similar institutions—that the tendency today in the School Department is to accentuate the High Schools and neglect the Grades and that there is a strong underlying sentiment throughout the City that the pendulum should swing the other way toward more thoroughness in work.

It is not a question alone of the small amount of $5,000 involved in this particular appropriation, but a question of checking school expenditures which have been growing out of all proportion to the growth of the City and the needs of other departments.

It is also a question of orderly procedure in the conduct of our City business. The School Department would raise no question as to the settlement of this appropriation on June 24th if the figure which they desire had been voted, and it was finally settled just as much at that time by the vote of the figure of $335,000 as if the larger figure had been then voted.

Finally, it is a question of the un-
